The Diary Of Madox Brown Paul Mellon Centre For Studies In British Art:

The Diary of Ford Madox Brown Ford Madox Brown, Virginia Surtees, 1981-01-01 This journal is the working diary of a painter At its start in 1847 Ford Madox Brown was twenty six years old a widower with a young child scarcely any money and with no acknowledged reputation It was a cheerless life aggravated by a tendency to imagine a slight where none was intended this and an outspoken contempt for authority were ingredients unlikely to make for an easy relationship Writing the Pre-Raphaelites Tim Barringer, 2017-07-05 This vibrant collection of essays claims that a complex network of texts by critics biographers and diarists established the credibility and influence of the Pre Raphaelite movement Throughout the twentieth century Modernist taste failed to acknowledge the achievement of oppositional groupings such as the Pre Raphaelites The essays collected here however reveal that the British group anticipated later avant gardes by using the written word to configure for itself a radical artistic identity Public and critics alike were scandalized by the radicalism of Pre Raphaelite painting its unflinching portrayal of historical figures and of contemporary life and its irreverent attitude to artistic convention Pre Raphaelitism s innovations were not confined to style new forms of artistic identity and behaviour were explored As the contributors interrogate the texts through which Pre Raphaelitism was constructed they demonstrate that the movement s wide influence as a cultural phenomenon derived from the interplay between exhibited works and critical discourse Applying a range of sophisticated methodologies from the fields of literary studies art history and cultural studies these interdisciplinary essays uncover the neglected role of texts in the success of the Pre Raphaelite rebellion and argue in favor of a new centrality for this movement in the history of nineteenth century European culture The Correspondence of Dante Gabriel Rossetti Dante Gabriel Rossetti, 2002 Represents the collection of extant Rossetti correspondence a primary witness to the range of ideas and opinions that shaped Gabriel Rossetti s art and poetry This work features known surviving letters a total of almost 5 800 to over 330 recipients and includes 2 000 letters by Rossetti and selected letters to him Chaucer as Children's Literature Velma Bourgeois Richmond, 2004-04-13 Although Geoffrey Chaucer is the major author for Middle English studies he often receives little notice in studies of children s literature However there is a fascinating relationship between Chaucer and children s interests This book examines in detail Chaucer stories retold for children both the texts and the illustrations which are excellent examples of the verbal and visual storytelling that are very important in children s literature The popularity of certain Chaucer stories their adjustment for children and the historical political educational and social contexts of the retellings reveal Victorian and Edwardian attitudes The author also considers how retellings of Chaucer stories contributed to the traditional view of Chaucer as the Father of English and how this view of him was developed at the turn of the twentieth century as part of an expansion of general education and English studies Painting the Bible Michaela Giebelhausen, 2017-07-05 Painting the Bible is the first book to investigate the transformations that religious painting underwent in mid Victorian England It charts the emergence of a

Protestant realist painting in a period of increasing doubt scientific discovery and biblical criticism The book analyzes the position of religious painting in academic discourse and assesses the important role Pre Raphaelite work played in redefining painting for mid Victorian audiences This original study brings together a wide range of material from high art and popular culture It locates the controversy over the religious works of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood in debates about academicism revivalism and caricature It also investigates William Holman Hunt s radical orientalist realist approach to biblical subject matter which offered an important updating of the image of Christ that chimed with the principles of liberal Protestantism The book will appeal to scholars and students across disciplines such as art history literature history and cultural studies Its original research rigorous analysis and accessible style will make it essential reading for anyone interested in questions of representation and belief in mid Victorian England Sound, Sin, and Conversion in Victorian England Julia Grella

O'Connell,2018-04-19 The plight of the fallen woman is one of the salient themes of nineteenth century art and literature indeed the ubiquity of the trope galvanized the Victorian conscience and acted as a spur to social reform In some notable examples Julia Grella O Connell argues the iconography of the Victorian fallen woman was associated with music reviving an ancient tradition conflating the practice of music with sin and the abandonment of music with holiness The prominence of music symbolism in the socially committed quasi religious paintings of the Pre Raphaelites and their circle and in the Catholic Wagnerian novels of George Moore gives evidence of the survival of a pictorial language linking music with sin and conversion and shows even more remarkably that this language translated fairly easily into the cultural lexicon of Victorian Britain Drawing upon music iconography art history patristic theology and sensory theory Grella O Connell investigates female fallenness and its implications against the backdrop of the social and religious turbulence of the mid nineteenth century Pre-Raphaelites: Beauty and Rebellion Christopher Newall,2016-01-26

Pre Raphaelites Beauty and Rebellion presents new research into Pre Raphaelites in Northern England to accompany an exhibition of artworks of the same title at Liverpool s Walker Art Gallery from February 2016 Pre-Raphaelite Masculinities Serena Trowbridge,2017-07-05 Drawing on recent theoretical developments in gender and men s studies Pre Raphaelite Masculinities shows how the ideas and models of masculinity were constructed in the work of artists and writers associated with the Pre Raphaelite movement Paying particular attention to the representation of non normative or alternative masculinities the contributors take up the multiple versions of masculinity in Dante Gabriel Rossetti s paintings and poetry masculine violence in William Morris s late romances nineteenth century masculinity and the medical narrative in Ford Madox Brown s Cromwell on His Farm accusations of perversion directed at Edward Burne Jones s work performative masculinity and William Bell Scott s frescoes the representations of masculinity in Pre Raphaelite illustration aspects of male chastity in poetry and art Tannaher as a model for Victorian manhood and masculinity and British imperialism in Holman Hunt s The Light of the World Taken together these essays demonstrate the far reaching effects of the plurality of masculinities that pervade the art and literature of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood

Painting, Science, and the Perception of Coloured Shadows Paul

Smith, 2021-03-17 Many artists and scientists including Buffon Goethe and Philipp Otto Runge who observed the vividly coloured shadows that appear outdoors around dawn and dusk or indoors when a candle burns under waning daylight chose to describe their colours as beautiful Paul Smith explains what makes these ephemeral effects worthy of such appreciation or how depictions of coloured shadows have genuine aesthetic and epistemological significance This multidisciplinary book synthesises methodologies drawn from art history close pictorial analysis psychology and neuroscience theories of colour constancy history of science the changing paradigms used to explain coloured shadows and philosophy theories of perception and aesthetic value drawn from Wittgenstein and Merleau Ponty This title will be of interest to scholars in art history art theory and the history of science and technology

A Vindication of the Redhead Brenda Ayres, Sarah E.

Maier, 2021-12-14 A Vindication of the Redhead investigates red hair in literature art television and film throughout Eastern and Western cultures This study examines red hair as a signifier perpetuated through stereotypes myths legends and literary and visual representations Brenda Ayres and Sarah E Maier provide a history of attitudes held by hegemonic populations toward red haired individuals groups and genders from antiquity to the present Ayres and Maier explore such diverse topics as Judeo Christian narratives of red hair redheads in Pre Raphaelite paintings red hair and gender identity famous literary redheads such as Anne of Green Gables and Pippi Longstocking contemporary and Neo Victorian representations of redheads from the Black Widow to The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo and more This book illuminates the symbolic significance and related ideologies of red hair constructed in mythic religious literary and visual cultural discourse
