The Historians Business And Other Essays:

The Historian's Business, and Other Essays Richard Pares, 1974 Freud for Historians Peter Gay, 1985 A thoughtful and detailed contribution to a major intellectual debate Freud for Historians builds an eloquent case for history informed by psychoanalysis and offers an impressive rebuttal to the charges of the profession's anti-Freudians Business History around the World Franco Amatori, Geoffrey Jones, 2003-09-18 This 2003 book offered the first in-depth international survey of contemporary research and debates in business history Over the two decades leading to its publication enormous advances had been made in writing the history of business enterprise and business systems Historians are documenting and analyzing the evolution of a wide range of important companies and systems their patterns of innovation production and distribution their financial affairs their political activities and their social impact Each essay is written by a prominent authority who provides an assessment of the state and significance of research in his or her area This volume is a reference work that will be of immense value to historians economists management researchers and others concerned to access the latest insights on the evolution of business throughout the world The Ethnographer's Magic and Other Essays in the History of Anthropology George W. Stocking, 1992 George Stocking has been widely recognized as the premier historian of anthropology ever since the publication of his first volume of essays Race Culture and Evolution in 1968 As editor of several publications including the highly acclaimed History of Anthropology series he has led the movement to establish the history of anthropology as a recognized research specialization In addition to the study of Victorian Anthropology his work includes numerous essays covering a wide range of anthropological topics The eight essays collected in The Ethnographer's Magic consider the emergence of anthropology since the late nineteenth century as an academic discipline grounded in systematic fieldwork Drawing extensively on unpublished manuscript materials the essays focus primarily on Franz Boas and Bronislaw Malinowski the leading figures in the American and the British academic fieldwork traditions According to George Marcus of Rice University the essays represent the most informative and insightful writings on Malinowski and Boas and their legacies that are yet available Beyond their biographical material the essays here touch upon major themes in the history of anthropology its powerfully mythic aspect and persistent strain of romantic primitivism the contradictions of its relationship to the larger sociopolitical sphere its problematic integration of a variety of natural scientific and humanistic inquiries and the tension between its scientific aspirations and its subjectively acquired data To provide an overview against which to read the other essays Stocking has also included a sketch of the history of anthropology from the ancient Greeks to the present For this collection Stocking has written prefatory commentaries for each of the essays as well as two more extended contextualizing pieces An introductory essay Retrospective Prescriptive Reflections places the volume in autobiographical and historiographical context the Afterword Postscriptive Prospective Reflections reconsiders major themes of the essays in relation to the recent past and present situation of academic anthropology Reader's Guide to

American History Peter J. Parish, 2013-06-17 There are so many books on so many aspects of the history of the United States offering such a wide variety of interpretations that students teachers scholars and librarians often need help and advice on how to find what they want The Reader s Guide to American History is designed to meet that need by adopting a new and constructive approach to the appreciation of this rich historiography Each of the 600 entries on topics in political social and economic history describes and evaluates some 6 to 12 books on the topic providing guidance to the reader on everything from broad surveys and interpretive works to specialized monographs The entries are devoted to events and individuals as well as broader themes and are written by a team of well over 200 contributors all scholars of American history The Place of Michael Oakeshott in Contemporary Western and Non-Western Thought Noel O'Sullivan, 2017-08-01 The continuing growth of worldwide interest in Michael Oakeshott s philosophy and political theory has recently 2016 been marked by the publication of two Companion to Oakeshott volumes This event provides a welcome opportunity to explore the reasons for his influence both within the West and beyond it Essays by contributors from Britain Canada Hong Kong India and the USA provide a comprehensive critical assessment of the principal aspects of Oakeshott s thought that account for his contemporary relevance The unusually multi national background of the authors aims to give the volume a wide appeal extending not only to those already familiar with Oakeshott s writings but also to those as yet unfamiliar with them regardless of their cultural background All the contributors have attempted to write in a way that makes Oakeshott as accessible as possible History of Oxford University Press: Volume III Ian Anders Gadd, Simon Eliot, William Roger Louis, Keith Robbins, 2013-11 The history of Oxford University Press spans five centuries of printing and publishing This third volume begins with the establishment of the New York office in 1896 It traces the expansion of OUP in America Australia Asia and Africa and far reaching changes in the business and technology of publishing up to 1970 Essays in the Economic History of the Atlantic World John McCusker, 2005-08-15 Written by one of the leading authorities on trade and finance in the early modern Atlantic world these fourteen essays revised and integrated for this volume share as their common theme the development of the Atlantic economy especially British America and the Caribbean Topics treated range from early attempts in medieval England to measure the carrying capacity of ships through the advent in Renaissance Italy and England of business newspapers that reported on the traffic of ships cargoes and market prices to the state of the economy of France over the two hundred years before the French Revolution and of the British West Indies between 1760 and 1790 Included is the story of Thomas Irving who challenged and thwarted the likes of John Hancock Samuel Adams Alexander Hamilton George Washington and Thomas Jefferson Making History Now and Then D. Cannadine, 2008-06-17 Collects twelve previously unpublished essays by one of Britain s most eminent historians David Cannadine including his inaugural and valedictory lectures at the Institute of Historical Research A unique volume discussing the study and nature of History itself and a range of key topics and periods in British and Imperial History Encyclopedia of Historians and

Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies
