Empires Justin Marozzi, 2020-02-04 Islamic civilization was once the envy of the world From a succession of glittering cosmopolitan capitals Islamic empires lorded it over the Middle East North Africa Central Asia and swathes of the Indian subcontinent while Europe cowered feebly at the margins For centuries the caliphate was both ascendant on the battlefield and triumphant in the battle of ideas its cities unrivaled powerhouses of artistic grandeur commercial power spiritual sanctity and forward looking thinking in which nothing was off limits Islamic Empires is a history of this rich and diverse civilization told through its greatest cities over the fifteen centuries of Islam from its earliest beginnings in Mecca in the seventh century to the astonishing rise of Doha in the twenty first Marozzi brilliantly connects the defining moments in Islamic history from the Prophet Mohammed receiving his divine revelations in Mecca and the First Crusade of 1099 to the conquest of Constantinople in 1453 and the phenomenal creation of the merchant republic of Beirut in the nineteenth century and how this world is continuing to change today The History of the Medieval World Susan Wise

Bauer, 2010-01-26 Chronicles the period between the 4th and 12th centuries when religion became the justification for political and military action a time that included the development of Islam the crowning of Charlemagne and the rise of the T ang Dynasty Baghdad Justin Marozzi, 2014-05-29 In Baghdad City of Peace City of Blood celebrated young travelwriter historian Justin Marozzi gives us a many layered history of one of the world s truly great cities both its spectacular golden ages and its terrible disasters Justin Marozzi is the most brilliant of the new generation of travelwriter historians Sunday Telegraph Over thirteen centuries Baghdad has enjoyed both cultural and commercial pre eminence boasting artistic and intellectual sophistication and an economy once the envy of the world It was here in the time of the Caliphs that the Thousand and One Nights were set Yet it has also been a city of great hardships beset by epidemics famines floods and numerous foreign invasions which have brought terrible bloodshed This is the history of its storytellers and its tyrants of its philosophers and conquerors Here in the first new history of Baghdad in nearly 80 years Justin Marozzi brings to life the whole tumultuous history of what was once the greatest capital on earth Justin Marozzi is a Councillor of the Royal Geographic Society and a Senior Research Fellow at Buckingham University He has broadcast for BBC Radio Four and regularly contributes to a wide range of publications including the Financial Times for which he has worked in Iraq Afghanistan and Darfur His previous books include the bestselling Tamerlane Sword of Islam a Sunday Telegraph Book of the Year 2004 and The Man Who Invented History Travels with Herodotus The History of al-Tabari Vol. 15 Abū Ja'far Muḥammad ibn Jarīr al-Ṭabarī, 1990-01-01 Before the caliphate of the Uthman b Affan the Muslim community had grown from strength to strength in spite of a series of major crises the Hirah the death of the Prophet the Riddah wars the assassination of Umar by a Persian slave But Uthman's reign ended in catastrophe His inability to manage the social and political conflicts that were now emerging among various factions within the community led to his death at the hands of Muslim rebels The consequences of this tragic event were bitter not only a century of civil war but also political and religious schisms of such depth that they have not been entirely healed even now Most medieval Muslim historians told this story in an overtly partisan manner but al Tabari demands more of his readers First of all they must decide for themselves on the basis of highly ambiguous evidence whether Uthman's death was tyrannicide or murder But more than that they must ask how such a thing could have happened at all what had the Muslims done to bring about the near destruction of their community Al Tabari presents this challenge within a broad framework For even while the internal crisis that issued in Uthman's death was coming to a head the wars against Byzantium and Persia continued The first expeditions into North Africa the conquest of Cyprus the momentary destruction of the Byzantine fleet at the Battle of the Masts the bloody campaigns in Armenia the Caucasus and Khurasan are all here in narratives that shift constantly between hard reporting and pious legend Muslim forces retain the offensive but there are no more easy victories henceforth suffering and endurance will be the hallmarks of the hero Most evocative in the light of Uthman's fate is the moving account of the murder of the last Sasanian king Yazdagird III a man betrayed by his nobles and subjects but most of all by his own character The Muslim World Book Review, 1987

The Ghazi Sultans and the Frontiers of Islam Ali Anooshahr, 2008-11-19 The Ghazi Sultans were frontier holy warrior kings of late medieval and early modern Islamic history This book is a comparative study of three particular Ghazis in the Muslim world at that time demonstrating the extent to which these men were influenced by the actions and writings of their predecessors in shaping strategy and the way in which they saw themselves Using a broad range of Persian Arabic and Turkish texts the author offers new findings in the history of memory and self fashioning demonstrating thereby the value of intertextual approaches to historical and literary studies The three main themes explored include the formation of the ideal of the Ghazi king in the eleventh century the imitation thereof in fifteenth and early sixteenth century Anatolia and India and the process of transmission of the relevant texts By focusing on the philosophical questions of becoming and modelling Anooshahr has sought alternatives to historiographic approaches that only find facts ideology and legitimization in these texts This book will be of interest to scholars specialising in Medieval and early modern Islamic history Islamic literature and the history of religion

Arab Conquests and Early Islamic Historiography Ryan J. Lynch, 2019-11-14 Winner of the 2021 Southeast Regional Middle East and Islamic Studies Society Book Prize Of the available sources for Islamic history between the seventh and eighth centuries CE few are of greater importance than al Baladhuri's Kitab Futuh al buldan The Book of the Conquest of Lands Written in Arabic by a ninth century Muslim scholar working at the court of the Abbasid caliphs the Futuh's content covers many important matters at the beginning of Islamic history It informs its audience of the major events of the early Islamic conquests the settlement of Muslims in the conquered territories and their experiences therein and the origins and development of the early Islamic state Questions over the text's construction purpose and reception however have largely been ignored in current scholarship This is despite both the text's important historical material and its crucial early date of creation It has become commonplace for researchers to turn to the Futuh for information on a specific location or topic but to ignore the grander and in many ways more straightforward questions over the text's creation and limitations This book looks to correct these gaps in knowledge by investigating the context form construction content and early reception history of al Baladhuri's text

Views from the Edge Neguin Yavari, Lawrence G. Potter, Jean-Marc Ran Oppenheim, 2004-11-24 These essays were written by colleagues and former students of Richard Bulliet the preeminent Middle East scholar whose most important contribution remains his extraordinary imagination in the service of history The hallmark of the book then is innovative scholarship in all periods of Islamic history Its authors share a commitment to asking original historiographical questions with an overall orientation toward issues in social history

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 1, The Formation of the Islamic World, Sixth to Eleventh Centuries Chase F. Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume One of The New Cambridge History of Islam which surveys the political and cultural history of Islam from its Late Antique origins until the eleventh century brings together contributions from leading scholars in the field The book is divided into four parts The first provides an overview of the physical and political geography of the Late Antique Middle East The second charts the rise of Islam and the emergence of the Islamic political order under the Umayyad and the Abbasid caliphs of the seventh eighth and ninth centuries followed by the dissolution of the empire in the tenth and eleventh Regionalism the overlapping histories of the empire's provinces is the focus of Part Three while Part Four provides a cutting edge discussion of the sources and controversies of early Islamic history including a survey of numismatics archaeology and material culture

The Cambridge World History of Slavery: Volume 2, AD 500-AD 1420 Craig

Perry, David Eltis, Stanley L. Engerman, David Richardson, 2021-08-12 Medieval slavery has received little attention relative to slavery in ancient Greece and Rome and in the early modern Atlantic world This imbalance in the scholarship has led many to assume that slavery was of minor importance in the Middle Ages In fact the practice of slavery continued unabated across the globe throughout the medieval millennium This volume the final volume in The Cambridge World History of Slavery covers the period between the fall of Rome and the rise of the transatlantic plantation complexes by assembling twenty three original essays written by scholars acknowledged as leaders in their respective fields The volume demonstrates the continual and central presence of slavery in societies worldwide between 500 CE and 1420 CE The essays analyze key concepts in the history of slavery including gender trade empire state formation and diplomacy labor childhood social status and mobility cultural attitudes spectrums of dependency and coercion and life histories of enslaved people The Breaking of a of the slave trade in the Islamic world a story that has been overshadowed by its notorious but shorter lived Atlantic counterpart Slavery in the Islamic world has a long complex and controversial history In the earliest days of Islam Arab Muslims enslaved men women and children as the spoils of war In the following centuries young boys were imported to imperial Islamic courts in enormous numbers Some were castrated to serve as eunuch guardians of sacred spaces from the imperial harem of Istanbul to the Prophet s Mosque in Medina Others were harvested by the Ottomans to serve as Janissaries the sultan s elite infantry unit Some even rose to the highest levels of political and military command making a mockery of their slave status For wom leading concubines became powerful figures in their own right In the ninth century Golden Age of Baghdad the most beautiful and accomplished courtesans were among the richest most celebrated figures of their day In the twentieth century more than a thousand years later their cosmopolitan counterparts were still entertaining Ottoman sultans Yet it was Africa which bore the brunt of the Islamic world s insatiable demand for slave labour Slavers plied its Mediterranean Atlantic and Indian Ocean coasts traders raided inland for human cargo and millions of enslaved Africans trudged across the Sahara into captivity Meanwhile North African corsairs turned the Mediterranean into a slaving free for all between Muslims Christians and Jews The sheer longevity of slavery was no less surprising Arab Muslims adapted and regulated this practice within an Islamic context Sanctioned by the Prophet Mohammed legitimated by the Quran and holy law slavery endured for fifteen centuries Abolition had few champions and came late in the day hereditary slavery continues even today in Mali and Mauritania Captives and Companions takes the reader on an extraordinary historical journey across deserts continents and oceans from Baghdad to Bamako Tripoli to Timbuktu Istanbul to the Black Sea and reveals a hidden but vital chapter in our understanding of world civilization The History of al-Tabarī Volume XL ,2015-07-07 Completed in 1999 by a distinguished group of Arabists and historians of Islam the annotated translation of al abar s History is arguably the most celebrated chronicle produced in the Islamic lands on the history of the world and the early centuries of Islam This fortieth volume the Index compiled by Alex V Popovkin under the supervision of Everett K Rowson serves as an essential reference tool It offers scholars and general readers convenient access to the wealth of information provided by this massive work The Index comprises not only all names of persons and places mentioned by al abar with abundant cross referencing but also a very broad range of subject entries on everything from pomegranates to forms of punishment The volume includes a separate index of Quranic citations and allusions as well as a list of errata and corrigenda to the entire translation
