The Hopeful Traveller:

The Hopeful Traveller Janina David, 2024-06-05 In France Mattie feels twenty again In Poland Magda revisits her impoverished family In Uzbekistan Diana lets a fellow tourist kiss her In Germany Lynn loses her luggage on the D sseldorf train The Hopeful Traveller is a collection of short stories about and told by single women who have put the past behind them but are still looking for their anchor in the present The stories include bitter sweet accounts of the freedoms of postwar life foreign travel the rekindling of old friendships and the search for new ones They speak of cosmopolitan self confident well heeled characters in an era just before the birth of feminism conventional in their expectations of men always just a step away from displacement and alienation Set variously in Paris Kalisz Samarkand Hong Kong Melbourne Erfurt Singapore and London these stories from a much admired veteran writer offer a teasing mix of realism and fantasy wish fulfilment and regret

The Hopeful Traveller Fiona Farrell, 2013-03-01 A fascinating novel of hope love idealism and human progress made up of two separate stories which can be read in isolation and yet reverberate against each other Sometime in the 1860s in an isolated valley on Banks Peninsula Harry Head the Hermit of Hickory Bay experimented unsuccessfully with flight His story forms part of the exuberant blend of fact and fiction which constitutes this tale The author takes us back to the beginnings of novel writing as philosophical play and serious entertainment Think Crusoe s island think Utopia Twelve characters driven by obsession hope or the vagaries of chance come ashore in widely different circumstances onto the same island Once there the game can begin Written in two halves this is a book to be read from either end Begin with the past and race toward the future or begin with the present and circle back towards the past Time may separate the two sections yet subtle links and twisting events bring them together into a varied intriguing and compulsive whole

Jean Ryan Hakizimana, 2009-10-02 This volume hopes to act as a catalyst for some new and exciting areas of enquiry in the more liminal interstices of Irish Studies Traveller Studies Romani Studies and Diaspora and Migration Studies These disciplines are all relatively new areas of enquiry in modern Ireland a country whose society has witnessed very rapid and wide ranging cultural and demographic change within the short space of a decade The issue of multiculturalism is not one which is particularly new to Irish society as a number of contributors to this volume point out What is new however is an increased acknowledgement of diversity and multiculturalism in Ireland and Europe as a whole Such an acknowledgement makes increased dialogue between mainstream society older minorities such as the Irish Travellers and the many newer immigrant communities such as the Roma all the more necessary For such constructive dialogue to take place it is vital that migratory peoples and their particular expressions of postcolonial identity be voiced and valued These identities are both complex and diverse and frequently straddle a number of countries and national identities It is hoped that this volume will go some way towards the cultivation of such dialogue
