Greece Guy Hedreen, 2015-11-26 This book explores the persona of the artist in Archaic and Classical Greek art and literature Guy Hedreen argues that artistic subjectivity first expressed in Athenian vase painting of the sixth century BCE and intensively explored by Euphronios developed alongside a self consciously constructed persona of the poet He explains how poets like Archilochos and Hipponax identified with the wily Homeric character of Odysseus as a prototype of the successful narrator and how the lame yet resourceful artist god Hephaistos is emulated by Archaic vase painters such as Kleitias In lyric poetry and pictorial art Hedreen traces a widespread conception of the artist or poet as socially marginal and sometimes physically imperfect but rhetorically clever technically peerless and a master of fiction Bringing together in a sustained analysis the roots of subjectivity across media this book offers a new way of studying the relationship between poetry and art in ancient Greece The Tabernacle of Life Dr. Roger B.
