Conrad's Angel Stuart Slade,2018-10-05 Conrad de Llorente Inquisitor A Soul Eternally Damned After centuries tormented by guilt Conrad s work saving the innocent finally won him a measure of peace and at least some of the Redemption he craves Now respected by his peers he lives in Bangkok and carries on his work protecting those unjustly condemned and who have nowhere else to turn It is here that he faces his greatest ever challenge a young woman who survived a horrifying attack as a child and has now become a career criminal Conrad faces a new and unprecedented challenge Knowing that Angel was betrayed by her family and believing his Church was responsible for the path her life has taken he feels obliged to try and save her soul Yet how does he go about saving somebody who does not want to be saved and redeeming a soul that spurns redemption Driven by the principle of hating the sin but loving the sinner Conrad accepts this new challenge and is determined to save Angel s soul if necessary at cost of his own

Conrad's Malaysian Fiction Florence Clemens,2022-10-04 The relationship between Conrad s Malay fiction and colonialism is a prominent subject of commentary now and has been for some time Most scholars would point to Chinua Achebe s important article An Image of Africa as the initiation into the interest in Conrad and colonialism but in fact decades previously Florence Clemens had begun this conversation in her ground breaking commentary on Conrad s Malay fiction At the time Florence Clemens was writing almost nothing had been written on the Conrad s colonial world and for many years her work thus was relatively unknown and relatively difficult to obtain However Clemens work is significant and its appearance in Brill s Conrad

Studies series now makes this important study readily available to scholars Conrad's Narratives of Difference Lissa Schneider-Rebozo, 2013-12-16 In Joseph Conrad's tales representations of women and of feminine generic forms like the romance are often present in fugitive ways Conrad's use of allegorical feminine imagery fleet or deferred introductions of female characters and hybrid generic structures that combine features of masculine tales of adventure and intrigue and feminine dramas of love or domesticity are among the subjects of this literary study Many of Conrad's critics have argued that Conrad's fictions are aesthetically flawed by the inclusion of women and love plots thus Thomas Moser has questioned why Conrad did not cut them out altogether Yet a thematics of gender suffuses Conrad's narrative strategies Even in tales that contain no significant female characters or obvious love plots Conrad introduces elusive feminine presences in relationships between men as well as in men's relationships to their ship the sea a shore breeze or even in the gendered embrace of death This book investigates an identifiably feminine point of view which is present in fugitive ways throughout Conrad's canon Conrad's narrative strategies are articulated through a language of sexual difference that provides the vocabulary and grammar for tales examining European class racial and gender paradigms to provide acute and at times equivocal investigations of femininity and difference
