explores the complicated intersection of history commemoration and victimization made evident in these museums constructed after 1991 While contributors from a diverse range of fields explore various museums and include nearly 90 photographs a common denominator emerges rather than focusing on artifacts and historical documents these museums often privilege memories and stories In doing so the museums shift attention from experiences of guilt or collaboration to narratives of shared victimization under communist rule As editor Stephen M Norris demonstrates these museums are often problematic at best and revisionist at worst From occupation museums in the Baltic States to memorial museums in Ukraine former secret police prisons in Romania and nostalgic museums of everyday life in Russia the sites considered offer new ways of understanding the challenges of separating memory and myth
