About the Book

In the mid-twentieth century, the University of Ceylon, Peradeniya (now University of Peradeniya) was the center of Sri Lanka's intellectual and cultural life. Peradeniya's sheer physical beauty provided a background to an atmosphere of endeavor, of expectancy, of optimism, glamour and romance. This book is placed in that setting. Nina, a young woman from rural Sri Lanka struggles to acquire knowledge and gain acceptance. As the story progresses, the reader is treated to a view of undergraduate life of the time in all its varieties. Amidst various obstacles, Nina finds friends and discovers romance. Her eventual success is not without cost. Readers will be enthralled by the vivid descriptions of places and beguiled by characters that seem vaguely familiar.

The Days We Wished Would Never End:

"Though An Army Besiege Me..." Maria Spillari, 2009-10 THOUGH AN ARMY BESIEGE ME On April 18 1996 in Guatemala City a group of masked armed men entered my house to steal and destroy They took my youngest son who was six years old at the time and his father They were held for several weeks in exchange for a significant amount of money Those were days of great pain and suffering but they were also days in which we really came to know that God Almighty exists and He is always aware of our heartache We live in a world of sin and injustice a world that chooses to follow its own course We suffer the consequences of sin on both a large and small scale on a daily basis No one is exempt Suffering affords us the opportunity to understand that our intelligence ability or power becomes useless and there is only one way out to look to the One who overcame the world the One who does have the power The way out can seem impossible but in His time God always clears a new path The great things that God did in the life of my family cannot be put away in a drawer gather dust and be forgotten The same God who did great things during those painful days in 1996 can do miracles today in your life if you will just believe MARIA SPILLARI currently lives with her three children in the United States Maria has actively served in women's youth and children's ministries for nearly 20 years in the churches that she has belonged to in Guatemala and in the United States Her passion is teaching about the Word of God www.mariaspillari.com coming soon in English MCKK Impressions, 1905-2005, 2004 Yankee Tsunami Andrew R.
