The Denial Of Death:

The Denial of Death Ernest Becker, 1973-05-08 Addresses the issue of mortality discussing how humans universally share a fear of death and examines the theories of leading thinkers on this subject including Freud Rank and Kierkegaard The Denial of Death Ernest Becker, 1973 Addresses the issue of mortality discussing how humans universally share a fear of death and examines the theories of leading thinkers on this subject including Freud Rank and Kierkegaard The Denial of Death Ernest Becker (antropologia culturale), 1975 The Denial of Death, Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage Shakespeare & the Denial of Death James L. Calderwood, 1987 Denial of Death Ernest Becker, 2024-05-15 Dalam buku ini Ernest Becker di satu sisi membahas motivasi dasar perilaku manusia kebutuhan biologisnya untuk menyangkal mengakui kematiannya sendiri Teror kematian yang begitu dahsyat dan membuat manusia kewalahan membuat kita bersekongkol untuk menyembunyikannya dengan menciptakan sistem kepahlawanan yang memungkinkan kita untuk percaya bahwa kita bisa melampaui kematian dengan berpartisipasi dalam sesuatu yang bernilai abadi Di sisi lain Becker juga mengungkap sistem kepahlawanan itu selalu bersifat paradoks proyek heroik yang bertujuan untuk menghancurkan kejahatan justru malah membawa lebih banyak kejahatan ke dunia Tidak berlebihan jika dikatakan bahwa Becker memberi kita cara baru untuk memahami bagaimana manusia menciptakan begitu banyak kejahatan perang pemusnahan etnis dan genosida Encyclopedia of Death and Dying Glennys Howarth, Oliver Leaman, 2003-12-16 In recent years there has been a massive upsurge in academic professional and lay interest in mortality This is reflected in academic and professional literature in the popular media and in the proliferation of professional roles and training courses associated with aspects of death and dying Until now the majority of reference material on death and dying has been designed for particular disciplinary audiences and has addressed only specific academic or professional concerns There has been an urgent need for an authoritative but accessible reference work reflecting the multidisciplinary nature of the field. This Encyclopedia answers that need. The Encyclopedia of Death and Dying consolidates and contextualizes the disparate research that has been carried out to date. The phenomena of death and dying and its related concepts are explored and explained in depth from the approaches of varied disciplines and related professions in the arts, social sciences, humanities, medicine, and the sciences. In addition to scholars and students in the field from anthropologists and sociologists to art and social historians, the Encyclopedia will be of interest to other professionals and practitioners whose work brings them into contact with dying, dead, and bereaved people. It will be welcomed as the definitive death and dying reference source and an essential tool for teaching, research, and independent study.

The Mirror of Death Kristof K. P. Vanhoutte, 2024-04-01 How porous is the border between life and death? How do the dead influence the living and in what way? What can Heaven, Hell, Purgatory, and the two Limbos tell us of our contemporary world today? In The Mirror of Death, Kristof K. P. Vanhoutte explores the hermeneutical potential of the regions in the hereafter. After an exciting voyage through the emergence of the afterlife and of the constancy of death's presence in the history of humanity, Vanhoutte shows through the study of the nature and genealogy of the various realms in the beyond how an invigoratingly new and critical perspective of a wide variety of contemporary phenomena is unveiled when reading them through the interpretative lens of these regions where the dead dwell. Modern politics, our fellow human beings, the times of our lives, the capitalistic economic system, medicalization, wokism, and living in crisis will never look the same.

Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 Death and dying and death-related behavior involve the causes of death and the nature of the actions and emotions surrounding death among the living. Interest in the varied dimensions of death and dying has led to the development of death studies that move beyond medical research to include behavioral science disciplines and practitioner-oriented fields. As a result of this interdisciplinary interest, the literature in the field has proliferated. This two-volume resource addresses the traditional death and dying-related topics but also presents a unique focus on the human experience to create a new dimension to the study of death and dying. With more than 300 entries, the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience includes the complex cultural beliefs and traditions and the institutionalized social rituals that surround dying and death, as well as the array of emotional responses relating to bereavement, grieving, and mourning. The Encyclopedia is enriched through important multidisciplinary contributions and perspectives as it arranges, organizes, defines, and clarifies a comprehensive list of death-related perspectives, concepts, and theories.

Key Features: Imparts significant insight into the process of dying and the phenomenon of death. Includes contributors from Asia, Africa, Australia, Canada, China, eastern, southern, and western Europe, Iceland, Scandinavia, South America, and the United States who offer important interdisciplinary and cross-cultural perspectives. Provides a special focus on the cultural artifacts and social institutions and practices that constitute the human experience. Addresses death-related terms and concepts such as angel makers, equivocal
