The Diary Of Emotions And Other Poems:

The Diary of Emotions and Other Poems Brandon Mitchell,2004-11-01 The Diary of Emotions is an attempt to explore the human mind It taps into the emotions of every person and exploits the very fabric that makes up our conscience Divided into four sections every chamber of the heart is explained in vivid detail From the darkness of rage and guilt to the endless stream of love and bliss these poems are funny at times and yet serious and even angry at others The Literature of Ecstasy Albert Mordell,2019-12-13 In The Literature of Ecstasy Albert Mordell embarks on an intellectually provocative journey through the realms of ecstatic literature examining works that transcend conventional boundaries and delve into the depths of human experience With a lyrical and analytical prose style Mordell engages with a rich tapestry of texts from various cultures and epochs navigating through the works of poets and prose writers who grapple with ecstasy as a profound emotional and spiritual state The book situates ecstasy within literary modernism showcasing its evolution and multifaceted representation across diverse genres from Romanticism to modernist experimentation Albert Mordell a notable literary scholar and critic was deeply influenced by his encounters with avant garde movements and mystic traditions His profound understanding of psychological and philosophical undercurrents informs his exploration of ecstasy as a vital yet often overlooked facet of literature The author's own experiences with the transformative power of literature has inspired him to uncover the ways in which ecstatic expressions resonate with universal human themes thus illuminating the interplay between art and transcendent experience This essential reading is highly recommended for scholars students and enthusiasts of literature who seek to expand their understanding of ecstatic experience in literary contexts Mordell's incisive analysis not only enriches the appreciation of canonized texts but also invites readers to reconsider the very nature of literary engagement making it an indispensable addition to the libraries of those passionate about the intersections of emotion and art

THE "I" OF THE STORM David Lester,2014-01-01 We cannot explain why people kill themselves There are no necessary or sufficient causes for suicide so rather than explaining suicide looking for causes perhaps we can understand suicide at least in one individual a phenomenological approach This book begins by examining the diaries from eight individuals who killed themselves Using qualitative analyses supplemented in some cases by quantitative analyses Lester seeks to uncover the unique thoughts and feelings that led these individuals to take their own lives Lester has also studied suicide notes the poems of those who died by suicide both famous poets and unpublished poets the letters written by suicides blogs and twitter feeds and one tape recording of a young man who killed himself just an hour or so after he recorded the tape This book will give you insights into the I of the storm the suicidal mind David Lester has PhD's from Cambridge University UK and Brandeis University USA He is a former President of the International Association for Suicide Prevention and a leading scholar on suicide murder the fear of death and other topics and thanatology Wittgenstein's Secret Diaries Dinda L. Poems Saakal Ulysses Dewan,2022-04-06 And Quiet Flows the Teesta Other Poems is a collection of poems that are based on themes as diverse as love politics and science As the title of the anthology suggests the book seeks to highlight the plight of the river Teesta which is culturally significant and a major river in the Sikkim North Bengal riparian region of the Indian sub continent The river worshipped by the indigenous Lepcha community has been exploited for hydel power generation in the face of opposition by the peace loving community and environmental activists who are concerned by the ecological repercussions of the development Drawing inspiration from Lepcha community myth the book begins with stifled love between Teesta and Rangeet rivers and celebration of nature s beauty by the poet The poems run through the entire spectrum of the poet s experience affected by the events occurring around him from the perspective of his personal love to the challenges posed by decadent politics environmental pollution and the Corona pandemic In his anthology the poet weaves a child s curiosity with a lover s intense passion tempered by a philosopher s sagacity Peppered with philosophical satirical romantic and imaginative elements the anthology presents an eclectic feast of different shades of human emotion to be relished by the readers H.A. Kramers Between Tradition and Revolution Max Dresden,2012-12-06

It is now a little more than 11 years since the idea of writing a personal and scientific biography of H A Kramers took hold of me A few days earlier I had been lecturing in a course on field theory on the renormalization procedures of relativistic quantum field theory Since the students had considerable trouble understanding the physical basis of the procedure at the end of the lecture I explained that renormalization is not an exclusive quantum or relativistic procedure A careful treatment of classical electron theory as started by Lorentz and developed in detail by Kramers also requires re normalization The students appeared quite interested and I promised them that I would explain all this in more detail in the next lecture I could have looked up this material in Kramers book but I remembered that Kramers had stressed this idea in a course I had attended in Leiden in 1938 1939 I did dig up some of these old notes and although they were considerably less transparent than my recollection seemed to indicate they reminded me force fully of the thrilling days I had spent in Leiden with Kramers Kramers deep insight and originality were apparent even when distorted by my opaque notes The students had never heard of these ideas of Kramers and were totally unaware of his work in field theory

The Contemporary Writer and Their Suicide Josefa Ros

Velasco,2023-07-05 This volume is the continuation of the book Suicide in Modern Literature edited by Josefa Ros Velasco. Considering the positive reception of this book, Ros Velasco launches the second part entitled The Contemporary Writer and their Suicide. This time leading representatives of various disciplines analyze the literary, philosophical, and biographical works of contemporary writers worldwide who attempted to commit suicide or achieved their goal, looking for covert and overt clues about their intentions in their writings. This book aims to continue shedding light on the social and structural causes that lead to suicide and on the suicidal mind, but also to show that people assiduous to writing usually reflect their intentions to commit suicide in their writings to explain how these frequently veiled intentions can be revealed and interpreted and to highlight the potential of artistic, philosophical, and autobiographical writing as a tool to detect suicidal ideation and prevent its consummation in vulnerable people. This book analyzes several case studies and their allusions to their contexts and the socio-structural and environmental violence and pressures they suffered, expressions of their will and agency, feelings of dislocation between the individual reality and existential alienation, and literary styles, writing techniques, and metaphorical language.

Of Women, Poetry, and Power Zofia Burr,2002

The haunting legacy of Emily Dickinson's life and work has shaped a romantic conception of poetry as private, personal, and expressive that has governed the reception of subsequent American women poets. Of Women, Poetry, and Power demonstrates how the canonization of Dickinson has consolidated limiting assumptions about women's poetry in twentieth-century America and models an alternative reading practice that allows for deeper engagement with the political work of modern poetry. Analyzing the reception of poems by Josephine Miles, Gwendolyn Brooks, Audre Lorde, and Maya Angelou, Zofia Burr shows the persistence of these critical outlooks and dispels the belief that we have long since moved beyond such limiting gendered expectations. Turning away from an obsessive concern with a poet's biography, Burr's readings of contemporary women's poetry accentuate its engagement and provocation of readers through its forms of address. Burr shows how displacing the limits of dominant reception is possible by approaching poetry as communicative utterance, not just as self-expression.

A Hidden Life and Other Poems George MacDonald,2019-12-04

In A Hidden Life and Other Poems, George MacDonald delves into the intricate tapestry of human emotion and spirituality, merging lyrical beauty with profound philosophical inquiry. The collection is characterized by its Victorian sensibility, rich imagery, and a lyrical cadence that resonates with the traditions of romanticism. MacDonald's works often reflect themes of nature, faith, and the eternal search for meaning, positioning this collection within the larger context of 19th-century poetry that grapples with both personal and universal truths. George MacDonald (1824-1905) was a Scottish author, poet, and theologian whose contributions to fantasy literature and poetry were deeply influenced by his Christian beliefs and a keen observation of the human condition. His pioneering role in the genre has often been overshadowed by contemporaries, yet his exploration of fantasy and reality sheds light on the moral dilemmas and spiritual quests that define humanity His own struggles with faith and identity undoubtedly informed the poignant themes presented in this collection Readers seeking a lyrical and introspective experience will find A Hidden Life and Other Poems to be a rewarding read MacDonald s ability to illuminate the subtleties of existence and the sacredness of the everyday invites reflection and offers a poignant exploration of the hidden depths of life that resonate even today A Survey of English Literature 1780-1880 Oliver Elton,1920
