The House In Good Taste:

The House in Good Taste Elsie De Wolfe, 1913 The House in Good Taste Elsie De Wolfe, 1915 Considered the founder of interior design as a profession Elsie de Wolfe also known as Lady Mendl authored this notable text detailing her strategies for decorating a home De Wolfe's clientele included celebrities such as Anne Vanderbilt the Duke and Duchess of Windsor and more Amongst other publications this book discusses general interior designing principles alongside the interiors of famous homes such as the Washington Irving House The House in Good Taste Elsie de Wolfe, 2017-12-13 Good taste can be developed in anyone just as surely as good manners are possible to anyone And good taste is as necessary as good manners declared Elsie de Wolfe the first lady of American interior design Although de Wolfe decorated the homes of wealthy socially prominent clients she always maintained that her vision of elegant but comfortable living is attainable to all This timeless 1913 book written in a friendly conversational tone explains how to design furnish and decorate a house in order to make it a beautiful useful and livable home De Wolfe pioneered the concept of the home as a representation of the owner's identity and this book defines her decorating methods philosophy and approach to creating spaces for gracious entertaining Part step by step manual and part aesthetic treatise this volume advocates for simpler yet more refined decor In contrast to the Victorian penchant for dark furniture bric a brac and heavy draperies de Wolfe advised her readers to let in natural light to replace gaudy colors with beige and ivory and to abandon clutter Her practical suggestions illustrated by period photographs illuminate the attitudes of a century ago while retaining their resonance for modern day interior designers The House in Good Taste Elsie de Wolfe, 2018-08-06 The House in Good Taste by Elsie De Wolfe THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE MODERN HOUSE I know of nothing more significant than the awakening of men and women throughout our country to the desire to improve their houses Call it what you will awakening development American Renaissance it is a most startling and promising condition of affairs It is no longer possible even to people of only faintly sthetic tastes to buy chairs merely to sit upon or a clock merely that it should tell the time Home makers are determined to have their houses outside and in correct according to the best standards What do we mean by the best standards Certainly not those of the useless overcharged house of the average American millionaire who builds and furnishes his home with a hopeless disregard of tradition We must accept the standards that the artists and the architects accept the standards that have come to us from those exceedingly rational people our ancestors Our ancestors built for stability and use and so their simple houses were excellent examples of architecture Their spacious uncrowded interiors were usually beautiful Houses and furniture fulfilled their uses and if an object fulfils its mission the chances are that it is beautiful We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

The House in Good Taste Elsie De Wolfe,1913 The House in Good Taste Elsie De Wolfe,2017-06-06 I THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE MODERN HOUSE I know of nothing more significant than the awakening of men and women throughout our country to the desire to improve their houses Call it what you will awakening development American Renaissance it is a most startling and promising condition of affairs It is no longer possible even to people of only faintly aesthetic tastes to buy chairs merely to sit upon or a clock merely that it should tell the time Home makers are determined to have their houses outside and in correct according to the best standards What do we mean by the best standards Certainly not those of the useless overcharged house of the average American millionaire who builds and furnishes his home with a hopeless disregard of tradition We must accept the standards that the artists and the architects accept the standards that have come to us from those exceedingly rational people our ancestors Our ancestors built for stability and use and so their simple houses were excellent examples of architecture Their spacious uncrowded interiors were usually beautiful Houses and furniture fulfilled their uses and if an object fulfils its mission the chances are that it is beautiful It is all very well to plan our ideal house or apartment our individual castle in Spain but it isn't necessary to live among intolerable furnishings just because we cannot realize our castle There never was a house so bad that it couldn't be made over into something worth while We shall all be very much happier when we learn to transform the things we have into a semblance of our ideal How then may we go about accomplishing our ideal By letting it go By forgetting this vaguely pleasing dream this evidence of our smug vanity and making ourselves ready for a new ideal By considering the body of material from which it is good sense to choose when we have a house to decorate By studying the development of the modern house its romantic tradition and architectural history By taking upon ourselves the duty of self taught lessons of sincerity and common sense and suitability By learning what is meant by color and form and line harmony and contrast and proportion When we are on familiar terms with our tools and feel our vague ideas clearing into definite inspiration then we are ready to talk about ideals We are fit to approach the full art of home making We take it for granted that every woman is interested in houses that she either has a house in course of construction or dreams of having one or has had a house long enough wrong to wish it right And we take it for granted that this American home is always the woman's home a man may build and decorate a beautiful house but it remains for a woman to make a home of it for him It is the personality of the mistress that the home expresses Men are forever guests in our homes no matter how much happiness they may find there You will express yourself in your house whether you want to or not so you must make up your mind to a long preparatory discipline The House in Good Taste,

Illustrated with Photographs in Color and Black and White Elsie de Wolfe, 2012-08. Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts, 1. We have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. 2. In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches, etc., we have endeavored to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy. The House in Good Taste Elsie De Wolfe, 2017-09-12. Excerpt from The House in Good Taste. Illustrated With Photographs in Color and Black and White. Detail of a fine old French fixture of hand wrought metal. Lighting fixtures inspired by Adam mirrors. The staircase in the Bayard Thayer house. About the Publisher: Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works. The House in Good Taste, Etc. [With Plates, Including a Portrait.] Lady Elsie Mendl (formerly De Wolfe.), 1914.

Adopting the Tune of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within The House In Good Taste

In a global taken by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast interaction, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony developed by the prepared word often disappear into the background, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of The House In Good Taste a wonderful literary value overflowing with organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant musician of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional journey, well unraveling the concealed melodies and profound impact resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this touching evaluation, we shall investigate the book is key harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
