H. Baker, Gideon Biger, 2006-03-16 Landscapes of material are also landscapes of meaning In this book fifteen historical geographers examine landscapes as messages to be decoded as signs to be deciphered The essays are principally concerned with the ideologies of religion and of politics of Church and of state and their historical impress upon the landscape The Human Mosaic Mona Domosh, Terry G. Jordan-Bychkov, Roderick P. Neumann, Patricia L. Price, 2012 Cultural Landscapes Richard W. Longstreth, 2008 Preservation has traditionally focused on saving prominent buildings of historical or architectural significance Preserving cultural landscapes the combined fabric of the natural and man made environments is a relatively new and often misunderstood idea among preservationists but it is of increasing importance The essays collected in this volume case studies that include the Little Tokyo neighborhood in Los Angeles the Cross Bronx Expressway and a rural island in Puget Sound underscore how this approach can be fruitfully applied Together they make clear that a cultural landscape perspective can be an essential underpinning for all historic preservation projects

Approaches to Landscape Richard Muir, 1999-01-20 Approaches to Landscape introduces and explores the main perspectives in this increasingly popular field of study Written in an accessible style and illustrated throughout with relevant photographs maps and diagrams it provides a comprehensive review of the literature and key concepts for Landscape Studies

The Human Mosaic Terry G. Jordan-Bychkov, 2005-08-19 Carrying forward the legacy of original author Terry Jordan Bychkov Mona Domosh and new coauthors Roderick Neumann and Patricia Price offer this thoroughly updated new edition of the acclaimed introduction to the cultural geography of the world today The result is a text that maintains its original distinctive style while addressing contemporary issues and situations that students care about most importantly the continuing phenomenon of globalization

The Thematic Approach of The Human Mosaic The Human Mosaic introduces five themes in the opening chapter culture region cultural diffusion cultural ecology cultural interaction and cultural landscape then uses those themes as a framework for the topical chapters that follow Each theme is applied to a variety of geographical topics demography agriculture the city religion language ethnicity politics industry folk and popular culture Through this organization students are able to relate to the most important aspects of cultural geography at every point in the text

Encyclopedia of Human Geography Barney Warf, 2006-05-16 Human geography in the last decade has undergone a conceptual and methodological renaissance that transformed it into one of the most dynamic and innovative of the social sciences Long a borrower of ideas from other disciplines geography has become a contributor in its own right and a spatial turn is evident in disciplines as diverse as Sociology Anthropology and Literary Criticism With more than 300 entries written by an international team of leading authorities in the field the Encyclopedia of Human Geography offers a comprehensive overview of the major ideas concepts terms and approaches that characterize a notoriously diverse field This multidisciplinary volume provides cross cultural coverage of human geography as it is understood in the contemporary world and takes into account the enormous conceptual changes that have evolved since the 1970s including a variety of social constructivist approaches

Key Features Examines a range of themes characterizing different schools of thought and addresses long standing topics such as urban economic and medical geography as well as contemporary topics including feminism the social dimensions of GIS and the social construction of nature Explores many of the dualities that long characterized social science nature versus society the individual versus the social the historical versus the geographical consumption versus production and breaks them down using postmodern and poststructuralist approaches Illustrates how social and spatial structures draw upon people s daily lives which in turn structures their actions Looks at how globalization has manifested differently from place to place by discussing topics such as transnational capital international trade global commodity chains global cities international financial and telecommunications systems and how the global economy is reshaping geopolitics and governance Key Themes Cartography Geographical Information Systems Economic Geography Geographic Theory and History Political Geography Social Cultural Geography Urban Geography
