Skinned Activists Condemn The Horrors Of The Fur Trade:

The Subjugation of Canadian Wildlife Max Foran, 2018-04-10 Hardly a day goes by without news of the extinction or endangerment of yet another animal species followed by urgent but largely unheeded calls for action An eloquent denunciation of the failures of Canada's government and society to protect wildlife from human exploitation Max Foran's The Subjugation of Canadian Wildlife argues that a root cause of wildlife depletions and habitat loss is the culturally ingrained beliefs that underpin management practices and policies Tracing the evolution of the highly contestable assumptions that define the human wildlife relationship Foran stresses the price wild animals pay for human self interest Using several examples of government oversight at the federal provincial and territorial levels from the Species at Risk Act to the Biodiversity Strategy Protected Areas Network and provincial management plans this volume shows that wildlife policies are as much or more about human needs priorities and profit as they are about preservation Challenging established concepts including ecological integrity adaptive management sport hunting as conservation and the flawed belief that wildlife is a renewable resource the author compels us to recognize animals as sentient individuals and as integral components of complex ecological systems A passionate critique of contemporary wildlife policy The Subjugation of Canadian Wildlife calls for belief change as the best hope for an ecologically healthy wildlife rich Canada Animal Rights John M.

Animal Welfare in China Peter J. Li, 2021-03-01 Peter J Li's pathbreaking new book Animal Welfare in China is timely and valuable ANTHROZOOS The plight of animals in China has attracted intense interest in recent times Since the outbreak of COVID 19 speculation about the origins of the virus have sparked global curiosity Speculation about the origins of COVID 19 has sparked curiosity about how animals are treated traded and consumed in China today In Animal Welfare in China Peter Li explores the key animal welfare challenges facing China now including animal agriculture bear farming and the trade and consumption of exotic wildlife dog meat and other controversial products He considers how Chinese policymakers have approached these issues and speaks with activists from China's growing animal rights movement Li also offers an overview of the history of animal welfare in China from ancient times through the enormous changes of the 20th and 21st centuries Some practices that are today described as traditional he argues are in fact quite recent developments reflecting the contemporary pursuit of economic growth rather than long standing cultural traditions Based on years of fieldwork and analysis Animal Welfare in China makes a compelling case for a more nuanced and evidence based approach to these complex issues

Violence Against Indigenous Women Allison Hargreaves, 2017-08-24 Violence against Indigenous women in Canada is an ongoing crisis with roots deep in the nation's colonial history Despite numerous policies and programs developed to address the issue Indigenous women continue to be targeted for violence at disproportionate rates What insights can literature contribute where dominant anti violence initiatives have failed Centring the voices of contemporary Indigenous women writers this book argues for the important role that literature and storytelling can play in response to gendered colonial violence Indigenous communities have been organizing against violence since newcomers first arrived but the cases of missing and murdered women have only recently garnered broad public attention Violence Against Indigenous Women joins the conversation by analyzing the socially interventionist work of Indigenous women poets playwrights filmmakers and fiction writers Organized as a series of case studies that pair literary interventions with recent sites of activism and policy critique the book puts literature in dialogue with anti violence debate to illuminate new pathways toward action With the advent of provincial and national inquiries into missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls a larger public conversation is now underway Indigenous women's literature is a critical site of knowledge making and critique Violence Against Indigenous Women provides a foundation for reading this literature in the context of Indigenous feminist scholarship and activism and the ongoing intellectual history of Indigenous women's resistance Animals, Ethics and Trade Joyce D'Silva, Jacky Turner, 2012-05-16 Modern urban life cuts us off from direct connection with the animal world yet daily the lives of millions of animals are affected by what we consume and wear and what we trade in The use of animals for food labour and pleasure pursuits has long been justified with the assumption that unlike humans animals aren't fully sentient beings In recent years however science has revealed an astonishing array of complex animal behaviour and scientists and policy makers now accept that the animals we make use of are indeed conscious with preferences and intentions The implications for our culture of factory farming fast food and rainforest liquidation are staggering In this powerful book internationally renowned experts on animal behaviour and agriculture such as Jane Goodall Tim Lang and Vandana Shiva are brought together with ethicists religious scholars international industry and regulators for the first time to debate these critical issues and tackle the profound implications of animal sentience The first sections discuss scientific and ethical perspectives on the consciousness emotions and mental abilities of animals Later sections address how human activities such as science law religion farming food production trade development and education respect or ignore animals sentience and welfare and review the options for changes in our policies our practices and our thinking The result is nothing less than a stark and necessary look into the heart of humanity and the ethics that govern our animal powered society The Outlook, 1909 Skinned Anne Doncaster, International Wildlife Coalition, 1988 Activists condemn the horrors of the fur trade Cover The Animal's Agenda, 1999 Animals Are Us Victoria Thompson, 2023-02-03 This book will save lives human and animals Victoria Thompson is a passionate advocate for the protection of animals from great harm She movingly describes our appalling failures in this regard and praises those who press for the enlightened awareness and humane treatment of animals She believes profoundly that we must not continue to think of animals as just resources to exploit for animals too have a right to live naturally And she gives us solutions for a kinder world Victoria s book is a real ground breaker and may well become the new bible for those seeking to save our fellow species from immense suffering and even extinction Irina Dunn Animal Protection Institute's Animal Issues, 2002 Weekly World News, 1996-11-05 Rooted in the creative success of over 30 years of supermarket tabloid publishing the Weekly World News has been the world s only reliable news source since 1979 The online hub www.weeklyworldnews.com is a leading entertainment news site Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman Conant, Montgomery Schuyler, John Foord, Richard Harding Davis, Carl Schurz, Henry Loomis Nelson, John Kendrick Bangs, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Norman Hapgood, 1857 The Wood-worker, 1903
