Sky Woman Falling:

Sky Woman Falling Kirk Mitchell, 2003 As their pool of suspects of all colors grows Anna and Emmett's own lives depend on Anna's instincts and her ability to see the line where myth and reality come together BOOK JACKET Reasoning

Together Craig S. Womack, Daniel Heath Justice, Christopher B. Teuton, 2008 A paradigm shift in American Indian literary criticism The Great Law and the Longhouse William Nelson Fenton, 1998 The Great Law a living tradition among the conservative Iroquois is sustained by celebrating the condolence ceremony when they mourn a dead chief and install his successor for life on good behavior This ritual act reaching back to the dawn of history maintains the League of the Iroquois the legendary form of government that gave way over time to the Iroquois Confederacy Fenton verifies historical accounts from his own long experience of Iroquois society so that his political ethnography extends into the twentieth century as he considers in detail the relationship between customs and events His main argument is the remarkable continuity of Iroquois political tradition in the face of military defeat depopulation territorial loss and acculturation to European technology

Vail Fletcher,Alexa M. Dare,2021-02-04 The purpose of Communicating in the Anthropocene Intimate Relations is to tell a different story about the world Humans especially those raised in Western traditions have long told stories about themselves as individual protagonists who act with varying degrees of free will against a background of mute supporting characters and inert landscapes Humans can be either saviors or destroyers but our actions are explained and judged again and again as emanating from the individual And yet as the coronavirus pandemic has made clear humans are unavoidably interconnected not only with other humans but with nonhuman and more than human others with whom we share space and time Why do so many of us humans avoid deny or resist a view of the world where our lives are made possible maybe even made richer through connection In this volume we suggest a view of communication as intimacy We use this concept as a provocation for thinking about how we humans are in an always already state of being in relation with other humans nonhumans and the land Women in the New Millennium Anne R. Breneman,Rebecca N. Mbuh,2006-02-28 In this dynamic analysis of the gender revolution authors Anne Breneman and Rebecca Mbuh create a platform for scholars from a variety of cultures to reflect upon their experiences as women and men in gendered cultures and upon their visions of prospects for gender equality and empowerment Conceived during the United Nation s Fourth World Women s Conference in 1995 and continued during the Beijing 5 conference in 2000 this work represents the culmination of a ten year project involving women from China Sweden Korea Cameroon Indonesia South Africa and the USA Organized in five parts Beginning Women Awakening Women Arising Hazards of Growing up Female and Reflections and Prospects Women in the New Millennium includes perspectives in the form of scholarship historical narratives and interview materials aimed at contributing to public awareness of the global nature of the gender revolution With their analyses and examples of the expanding gender revolution Breneman and Mbuh seek to stimulate an interdisciplinary international dialogue that leads to the further creation of action plans and will ultimately contribute to the empowerment of women and the equality of women and men in the new millennium

Crosstalk Diana Brydon, Marta Dvořák, 2012-07-24 What are the fictions that shape Canadian engagements with the global What frictions emerge from these encounters In negotiating aesthetic and political approaches to Canadian cultural production within contexts of global circulation this collection argues for the value of attending to narratorial lyric and theatrical conventions in dialogue with questions of epistemological and social justice Using the twinned framing devices of crosstalk and cross sighting the contributing authors attend to how the interplay of the verbal and the visual maps public spheres of creative engagement today Individual chapters present a range of methodological approaches to understanding national culture and creative labour in global contexts Through their collective enactment of methodological crosstalk they demonstrate the productivity of scholarly debate across differences of outlook culture and training In highlighting convergences and disagreements the book sharpens our understanding of how literary and critical conventions and theories operate within and across cultures

Religion, Women of Color, and the Suffrage Movement Simon Mary Asele A. Ahiokhai, 2024-04-08 The year 2020 marks the centenary of the passing of the 19th Amendment that allowed for women in the United States to vote The strategic struggle of women demanding equal dignity and the right to vote in the United States helped to shed light on the systemic evils that have plagued the collective history of the country Ideologies of racism genderism classism and many more were and continue to be used to deny women their dignities both in the United States and in other parts of the world This work sheds light on the intersectionality of religion class gender philosophy theology and culture as they shape the experiences of women especially women of color A fundamental question that this volume aims to address is What does it mean to be a woman of color in a world where systems of erasure dominate The title of this volume is meant to showcase a deliberate engagement with the uncelebrated insights and perspectives of women of color in a world where systemic discrimination persists and to articulate new strategies and paradigms for recognizing their contributions to the broader struggles for freedom and equity of women in our world

Native American Spirit Beings Jeanne Nagle, 2014-07-15 Native American spirituality is as rich and varied as the cultures wherein it is practiced Unlike the ancient Greeks and Romans who worshipped divine gods and goddesses the indigenous people of North America revere a variety of non deity spirit beings which are entities with mystical powers The crux of Native American spirituality and detailed entries regarding some of the most intriguing spirit beings are discussed in this book Detailed material on Native American religious traditions beliefs by culture area and a complete chapter on nature worship are included in this informative package

Sources and Methods in Indigenous Studies Chris Andersen, Jean M. O'Brien, 2016-12-19 Sources and Methods in Indigenous Studies is a synthesis of changes and innovations in methodologies in Indigenous Studies focusing on sources over a broad chronological and geographical range Written by a group of highly respected Indigenous Studies scholars from across an array of disciplines this collection offers insight into the methodological approaches contributors take to research and how these methods have developed in recent years The book has a two part structure that looks firstly at the theoretical and disciplinary movement of Indigenous Studies within history literature anthropology and the social sciences Chapters in this section reveal that while engaging with other disciplines Indigenous Studies has forged its own intellectual path by borrowing and innovating from other fields In part two the book examines the many different areas with which sources for indigenous history have been engaged including the importance of family gender feminism and sexuality as well as various elements of expressive culture such as material culture literature and museums Together the chapters offer readers an overview of the dynamic state of the field in Indigenous Studies This book shines a spotlight on the ways in which scholarship is transforming Indigenous Studies in methodologically innovative and exciting ways and will be essential reading for students and scholars in the field
