Barnaba,2018-04-11 It is an understatement to say that women are real people with true and great abilities just like men yet it does seem like forever that we have been debating the rights of women and how they match up against the rights of men By every reckoning there is no blockage to the total equality of women to men yet again there it is In spite of everything that has been accomplished there still exists somewhat of a prejudice In spite of this prejudice young women need to know about those great sometimes not too well known women who have pushed and prodded and fought like crazy to get today's women to a spot that would have been unheard of only a relatively short time ago women who deserve the highest praise and placed in the highest echelons of respect and honor And even in politics women have been able to bring more choices for the voters with more women being elected as mayors to county and state legislatures executive offices congress and beyond And despite the hectic pace and all the infighting there have been far fewer who have been forced to resign because of incompetence or criminality Many of the women discussed in these pages could have been even more useful and helpful had they not had faced that word tradition Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B Anthony were some team Their organizational skills and tireless efforts could not have been met with failure It goes back to Stanton calling a women's rights convention in Seneca Falls New York in 1848 Someday we will truly be a land of equality practicing what it preaches and the women will get us there Hopefully this book will encourage young women of today to keep up the good fight Nevelson Louise Nevelson,1974 The Sculpture of Louise Nevelson Louise Nevelson,Arthur C. Library,1979* Louise Nevelson: Light and Shadow Laurie Wilson,2016-12-16 The most complete biography of the iconic sculptor Louise Nevelson the groundbreaking artist and fixture of New York's art world based on hours of interviews the author conducted at the height of Nevelson's fame In 1929 Louise Nevelson was a disappointed housewife with a young son surrounded by New York's vibrant artistic community but unable to fully engage with it By 1950 she was an artist living on her own financially dependent on her family but she had received a glimmer of recognition from the establishment inclusion in a group show at the Whitney Museum of American Art In 1980 Nevelson celebrated her second Whitney retrospective Her work was held in public collections around the world her massive steel sculptures appeared in public spaces in seventeen states including the Louise Nevelson Plaza in New York City's Financial District The story of

Nevelson's artistic spiritual even physical transformation she developed a taste for outrageous outfits and false eyelashes made of mink is dramatic complex and inseparable from major historical and cultural shifts of the twentieth century particularly in the art world Art historian and psychoanalyst Laurie Wilson brings a unique and sensitive perspective to Nevelson's story drawing on hours of interviews she conducted with Nevelson and her circle Over 100 images many of them drawn from personal archives and never before published make this the most visually and narratively comprehensive biography of this remarkable artist yet published Louise Nevelson Louise Nevelson, 1974-01-01 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1975
