Slings and Arrows Jerome David Levin,1995-04-01 Levin examines what therapists can do to help the victims of narcissistic wounds to integrate mourn and heal them He shows the nature of the injuries to each party and considers ways to minimize them since treatment itself can seem an injury to both patient and therapist , Gynocentrism Peter Wright,2014-08-22 Gynocentrism a centuries old term refers to the principle of female centeredness or female dominance in various social or interpersonal contexts The term has recently enjoyed a resurgence serving again as a descriptor of the expanding yet centuries old obsession with the rights status and power of women This book traces the history of that tradition to its roots in medieval society while being careful to note the difference between benign gynocentric acts and the more problematic examples of gynocentric culture The essays collected in this volume were originally penned for the website Gynocentrism and its Cultural Origins and have since been revised for this eBook edition The essays are grouped into five parts exploring various aspects of gynocentrism and providing examples of the phenomenon from historical literature The final part Post Gynocentric Relationships explores the possibility of relationships built on the notion of friendship as an alternative to neurotic shibboleths of romantic love Gender and Addictions Shulamith Lala Ashenberg Straussner,Elizabeth Zelvin,1997 Recognizing that men and women have different patterns and different needs the book emphasizes the relational model of female psychological development formulated by such theorists as Miller Chodorow and Gilligan which illuminates women s functional focus on connection and relationship as opposed to men s on separation and individuation Introduction to Alcoholism Counseling Jerome David Levin,1995 Beginning with the chemical and pharmacological aspects of alcoholism this book goes on to examine the medical social anthropological and psychological foundations of the problem This second edition features discussion on new treatment Harm Reduction Psychotherapy Andrew Tatarsky,2007-06-10 This ground breaking volume provides readers with both an overview of harm reduction therapy and a series of ten case studies treated by different therapists that vividly illustrate this treatment approach with a wide variety of clients Harm reduction is a framework for helping drug and alcohol users who cannot or will not stop completely_the majority of users_reduce the harmful consequences of use Harm reduction accepts that abstinence may be the best outcome for many but relaxes the emphasis on abstinence as the only acceptable goal and criterion of success Instead smaller incremental changes in the direction of reduced harmfulness of drug use are accepted This book will show how these simple changes in emphasis and expectation have dramatic implications for improving the effectiveness of psychotherapy in many ways From the Foreword by Alan Marlatt Ph D OThis ground breaking volume provides readers with both an overview of harm reduction therapy and a series of ten case studies treated by different therapists that vividly illustrate this treatment approach with a wide variety of clients In his introduction Andrew Tatarsky describes harm reduction as a new paradigm for treating drug and alcohol problems Some would say that harm reduction embraces a paradigm shift in addiction treatment as it has moved the field beyond the traditional abstinence only focus typically associated with the disease model and the ideology of the twelve step approach Others may conclude that the move toward harm reduction represents an integration of what Dr Tatarsky describes as the Obasic principles of good clinical practiceO into the treatment of addictive behaviors OChanging addiction behavior is often a complex and complicated process for both client and therapist What seems to work best is the development of a strong therapeutic alliance the right fit between the client and treatment provider The role of the harm reduction therapist is closer to that of a guide someone who can provide support and guidance throughout the difficult journey The therapist guide offers validation and respect for each client along with willingness to meet the person where he or she is on the journey and to help them achieve the next step toward their goal O

Moore, 2003 Structured around a series of lectures presented at the Jung Institute of Chicago in a program entitled Jungian Psychology and Human Spirituality Liberation from Tribalism in Religious Life this book length essay attacks the related problems of human evil spiritual narcissism secularism and ritual and grandiosity Robert Moore dares to insist that we stop ignoring these issues and provides clear sighted guidance for where to start and what to expect Along the way he pulls together many important threads from recent findings in theology spirituality and psychology and brings us to a point where we can conceive of embarking on a corrective course Traditional doctrinal and historical interpretation both rely heavily on rational analysis But from the disciples at Emmaus to the beginnings of the present century it has been the impact of scripture upon the human heart that has changed human lives In recent decades this impact has been strengthened by advances in linguistic and literary theory by such disparate influences as feminism structuralism Jungianism deconstructionism the analysis of archaic imagery and myth the recovery of Gnostic texts and finally an openness to pluralism whether ethnic geographic religious or interpretive All of these factors are treated here with a brevity and comprehensiveness which convincingly show that the reader of scripture has a creative and not merely passive role If you would understand the deepest roots of terrorism greed and religious fanaticism read Facing the Dragon But be forewarned you may find some offshoots in your own garden June Singer Jungian analyst author of Boundaries of the Soul Robert Moore Phd was an internationally recognized psychotherapist and consultant in private practice in Chicago He was considered one of the leading therapists specializing in psychotherapy with men because of his discovery of the Archetypal Dynamics of the Masculine Self King Warrior Magician Lover He served as Distinguished Service Professor of Psychology Psychoanalysis and Spirituality at the Graduate Center of the Chicago Theological Seminary and has served as a Training
