Reynolds, Loren T. Stuckenbruck, 2017-04-01 The contemporary study of Jewish apocalypticism today recognizes the wealth and diversity of ancient traditions concerned with the unveiling of heavenly matters understood to involve revealed wisdom the revealed resolution of time and revealed cosmology in marked contrast to an earlier focus on eschatology as such The shift in focus has had a more direct impact on the study of ancient pseudepigraphic literature however than in New Testament studies where the narrower focus on eschatological expectation remains dominant In this Companion an international team of scholars draws out the implications of the newest scholarship for the variety of New Testament writings Each entry presses the boundaries of current discussion regarding the nature of apocalypticism in application to a particular New Testament author The cumulative effect is to reveal as never before early Christianity its Christology cosmology and

Daniel Patrick Morgan, Damien Chaussende, 2019-09-19 This book examines the role of medieval authors in writing the history of ancient science. It features essays that explore the content structure and ideas behind technical writings on medieval Chinese state history. In particular, it looks at the Ten Treatises of the current History of Sui which provide insights into the writing on the history of such fields as astronomy, astrology, omenology, economics, law, geography, metrology, and library science. Three treatises are known to have been written by Li Chunfeng, one of the most important mathematicians, astronomers, and astrologers in Chinese history. The book not only opens a new window on the figure of Li Chunfeng by exploring what his writings as a historian of science tell us about him as a scientist and vice versa, it also discusses how and on what basis the individual treatises were written. The essays address such themes as 1. the recycling of sources and the question of reliability and objectivity in premodern history writing, 2. the tug of war between conservatism and innovation, 3. the imposition of the author's voice, worldview, and personal and professional history in writing a history of a field of technical expertise in a state history, 4. the degree to which modern historians are compelled to speak to their own milieu and ideological beliefs.

The Confucian Quest for Order Masayuki Sato, 2021-10-01 Xun Zi, one of the principal thinkers of the pre-imperial period and as such still widely read, ought to appear on any reading list on Chinese intellectual history. Dr. Sato's volume deals with the origin and formation of Xun Zi's political thought with close focus on the intellectual activity of the Jixia Academy and its impact on this synthesizer's theory on rituals and social norms. The author convincingly deals with the problems of textual authenticity and biography. The main part of the work treats the shift of intellectual inquiry from an argument of ethical matters to an analysis of the principles of socio-political mechanism, thus showing Xun Zi as a formative synthesizer of the two main streams of early Chinese intellectual discourse.

The Path of Purification Buddhaghosa, 1991 The Visuddhimagga, here rendered Path of Purification, systematically summarizes and interprets the teaching of the Buddha contained in the Pali Tipiṭaka. As the principal non-canonical authority of the Theravāda, it forms the hub of a complete and coherent method of exegesis of the Tipiṭaka using the Abhidhamma method as it is called. It sets out detailed practical instructions for developing purification of mind.

Scripture and the People of God John DelHousaye, Jeff T. Purswell, John J. Hughes, 2018-10-15 Scripture is the foundation for all of Christian life and ministry, but in our current age it is being challenged, doubted, and in many cases simply ignored. Wayne Grudem, one of evangelicalism's best-known theologians and authors, has worked tirelessly throughout his life to demonstrate the necessity, sufficiency, and centrality of Scripture. In his honor, Grudem's friends and colleagues, including John Piper, Thomas R. Schreiner, Sam Storms, Vern S. Poythress, John M. Frame, Gregg R. Allison, Erik Thoennes, and John DelHousaye, have compiled a series of essays on various topics central to Grudem's life and teaching. Exploring topics such as the nature of Scripture, the relationship between Scripture and doctrine, and the role of Scripture in life and ministry, this volume stands as a testimony to the enduring worth of God's Word.
