Spice Up Your Speech:

Spice up Your Speaking Presentations James Ocque, 2011-06-22 A droning monotone or a presentation laced with distracting filler words or phrases can negate the desired effects on an audience. The objective of a communication or presentation is either to inform, persuade, or motivate the listener. From a simple yes or no answer to a question to a presentation spanning several hours, it is the responsibility of the speaker to keep his or her listener engaged. Make Your Next Presentation Gourmet is a summary of what I have learned during my years of making presentations. It is based on years of evaluating and mentoring speakers, identifying their presentation strengths, and making suggestions on ways to improve. The scope of the contents starts with choosing a topic and ends with the presentation before an audience. It includes the story of how one person overcame the terror of speaking and gave a memorable presentation to her management. It is intended to be an aid for the occasional presenter at their company, agency, or organization to those wanting to speak in public or to those that want to speak more confidently and effectively at a public forum. It is presented in a concise format for quick reading and ease of understanding.
