Spirits Of Defiance:

Spirits of Defiance Kathleen Morgan Drowne, 2005 Address to the Clergy, and Skepticism and Divine Revelation John Ellis, 1886 Unmasked Spirit Flares Joanna Francis, 2007-11 A book of poetry and cameo writings previously published in newsletters magazines and books brought together in one volume The writings are mostly spiritual in nature with a different and slightly humorous look at human life on planet Earth at our reason for being here our mission vision and belief our relationship with ourselves God the universe and the inevitable fact of growing older and dying The author looks at life as a journey going somewhere sharing her optimism and enthusiasm for the beauty experienced in this life and the anticipation of what is yet to come The volume also includes meditations and practical ways of thinking about life and change

The Iron Cage Arthur Mitzman, This major study of the father of modern sociology explores the intimate relationship between the events of Max Weber's personal history and the development of his thought When it was first published in 1970 Paul Roazen described The Iron Cage as an example of the history of ideas at its very best while Robert A Nisbet said that we learn more about Weber's life in this volume than from any other in the English language Weber's life and work developed in reaction to the rigidities of familial and social structures in Imperial Germany In his youth he was torn by irreconcilable tensions between the Bismarckian authoritarianism of his father and the ethical puritanism of his mother These tensions led to a psychic crisis when in his thirties he expelled his father who died soon thereafter from his house His reaction to the collapse of the European social order before and during World War I was no less personal and profound It is the triumph of Professor Mitzman's approach that he convincingly demonstrates how the internalizing of these severe experiences led to Weber's pessimistic vision of the future as an iron cage and to such seminal ideas as the notion of charisma and the concept of the Protestant ethic and its connection with the spirit of capitalism The author's thesis also serves as a vehicle for describing the social political and personal plight of the European bourgeois intellectual of Weber's generation In synthesizing Weber's life and thought Arthur Mitzman has expanded and refined our understanding of this central twentieth century figure As Lewis Coser writes in the preface until now there has been little attempt to bring together the work and the man to show the ways in which Weber's cognitive intentions his choice of problems were linked with the details of his personal biography Arthur Mitzman fills this gap brilliantly The New Statesman, 1915 Skepticism and Divine Revelation John Ellis, 1882 The Belief in Immortality and the Worship of the Dead: The belief among the Micronesians James George Frazer, 1924 Mystic Romances of the Blue and the Grey Alexander C. Branscom, 1883

Goethe, Nietzsche, and Wagner T. K. Seung, 2006-03-27 The author reads Goethe's Faust as the first epic written under Spinoza's influence He shows how its thematic development is governed by Spinoza's pantheistic naturalism He further contends that Wagner and Nietzsche have tried to surpass their mentor Goethe's work by writing their own Spinozan epics of love and power in The Ring of the Nibelung and Thus Spoke Zarathustra These Spinozan epics are designed to succeed the Christian epics in the Western literary tradition Whereas the Christian epics dared to groom human beings for their destiny in the supernatural world the Spinozan epics try to reinstate humanity as the children of Mother Nature and overcome their alienation from the natural world which had been dictated by the long reign of Christianity However it has been well noted that none of these new epics seems to hang together thematically as a coherent work By his Spinozan reading the author not only demonstrates the thematic unity of each of them singly but further illustrates their thematic relation with each other Speak Your Healing from the Homosexual Deception Bonnie M. Egglehand, 2014-10-08 The lies of homosexuality dissipate because a life of purity in Christ Jesus decidedly removes the homosexual deception Each step toward Jesus brings us closer to His image and we are changed We emerge free to be exactly whom Father God created us to be Leaving all secrets with honesty and transparency before God and man forgiving ourselves and all abusers we emerge in our true identity with a heterosexual desire This desire for the opposite sex is as natural as apple pie Leaving the judgments the facades the sins and all idols the stark truth remains Our true identity is found in Jesus Christ alone
