Spirituality Of The Third World A Cry For Life:

Spirituality of the Third World K. C. Abraham, Bernadette Mbuy-Beya, 2005-08-02 The Third General Assembly of the Ecumenical Association of Third World Theologians meeting in Nairobi in 1992 took a fresh look at the changing context of the Third World Theologians in Nairobi firmly declared that third world theology should be decisively shaped by the spirituality of the marginalized indigenous people women minjung dalits and other minorities Their creative and life affirming spirituality is at the very center of their lives and struggles Spirituality of the Third World explores the meaning of spirituality its biblical roots its relation to human existence how it patterns a vision and enriches faith and how it celebrates life This spirituality is formed of faith struggle and hope the cry for life from the poor of all continents Part I describes the changing context of the Third World with a special focus on North South relationships Part II elaborates different forms of Third World spiritualities with origins in South and North America Africa and Asia Part III roots these spiritualities biblically and explores how they enrich theological understanding and sustain Christian life Contributors Elizabeth Amoah Frank Chikane Virgil Elizondo Ivone Gebara Jacquelyn Grant Franz J Hinkelammert Dwight N Hopkins Jose Miguez Bonino Takatso Mofokeng Pablo Richard Rosa Adela O Sierra George Soares Prabhu Lawrence Surendra Ana Maria Tepedino George E Tinker Sergio Torres Mary John Mananzan and Maria Vidale African Women's Liberating Philosophies, Theologies, and Ethics Beatrice Okyere-Manu, Léocadie Lushombo, 2024-05-02 This volume explores the ethical and philosophical paradigms presented by most of the influential Matriarchs of the Circle of African Women Theologians It critically evaluates the effectiveness of their ethical and philosophical theories models and frameworks in pursuing justice and liberation for women in Africa and globally The authors address critical questions How have African women theologians reimagined existing ethical paradigms What original ethical and philosophical ideas have they generated How have their ethical frameworks influenced the theologies and interpretations they have developed What purposes do their ethical and philosophical paradigms serve How do these renderings intersect with various social categories including gender race class sexuality capitalism and colonialism What liberating frameworks do they propose The volume further explores the dialogue between distinct African contexts and universal experiences and values It explores how universal themes such as humanity human dignity rights justice motherhood and more can coexist with communal African concepts and themes It contemplates how embracing African approaches engages these themes more globally bringing together particular African contexts of women and the universal ethical philosophical and theological theories models and frameworks to advance the cause of justice and liberation for African women and women worldwide into the future The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 The Encyclopedia of Christianity is the first of a five volume English translation of the third revised edition of Evangelisches Kirchenlexikon Its German articles have been tailored to suit an English readership and articles of special interest to English readers have been added The encyclopedia describes Christianity through its 2000 year history within a global context taking into account other religions and philosophies A special feature is the statistical information dispersed throughout the articles on the continents and over 170 countries Social and cultural coverage is given to such issues as racism genocide and armaments while historical content shows the development of biblical and apostolic traditions This comprehensive work while scholarly is intended for a wide audience and will set the standard for reference works on Christianity Outstanding reference sources 2000 American Libraries May 2000 Comp by the Reference Sources Committee RUSA ALA Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot, 2024-12-23 Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider's role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development A Liberation for the Earth A.M. Ranawana, 2022-11-30 In the encyclical Laodato Si Pope Francis describes the earth as the new poor opening it up as a place in need of liberation The fate of the poor the marginalised and those on the wrong side of the western colonial project is inextricably tied up with the fate of the planet In A Liberation for the Earth Anupama Ranawana explores the nexus between climate race and the liberative potential of the cross Reflecting on the entanglement between colonialization and the destruction of the planet she considers how this entanglement is played out and resisted within faith based and secular ecological justice movements in Canada Sri Lanka and the United Kingdom The Story of Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell, 2001 Beautifully illustrated throughout The Story of Christian Spirituality is a readable and vivid guide to the spiritual riches of one of the world's most influential religions Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit, 2022-07-04 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light Christian Faith and Social Justice: Five Views Vic McCracken, 2014-06-19 The Judeo Christian tradition testifies to a God that cries out demanding that justice roll down like waters righteousness like an ever flowing stream Amos 5:24 Christians agree that being advocates for justice is critical to the Christian witness And yet one need not look widely to see that Christians disagree about what social justice entails What does justice have to do with healthcare reform illegal immigration and same sex marriage Should Christians support tax policies that effectively require wealthy individuals to fund programs that benefit the poor Does justice require that we acknowledge and address the inequalities borne out of histories of gender and ethnic exclusivity Is the Christian vision distinct from non Christian visions of social justice Christians disagree over the proper answer to these questions In short Christians agree that justice is important but disagree about what a commitment to justice means Christian Faith and Social Justice makes sense of the disagreements among Christians over the meaning of justice by bringing together five highly regarded Christian philosophers to introduce and defend rival perspectives on social justice in the Christian tradition The positions advocated and critiqued are libertarianism political liberalism liberation theology feminism and virtue ethics While it aspires to offer a lucid introduction to these theories the purpose of this book is more than informative It is purposefully dialogical and is structured so that contributors are able to model for the reader reasoned exchange among philosophers who disagree about the meaning of social justice The hope is that the reader is left with a better understanding of range of perspectives in the Christian tradition about social justice African Women's Theologies, Spirituality, and Healing Oduyoye, Mercy Amba, 2019

African women come from a long tradition as practitioners of healing Drawing on this tradition and on her own pastoral and theological work Mercy Amba Oduyoye a distinguished Methodist theologian from Ghana discusses the spirituality that undergirds Christian healing practices in Africa with a special focus on diseases that predominantly affect women Sámi Nature-Centered Christianity in the European Arctic Tore Johnsen, 2022-07-22 Sámi Nature Centered Christianity in the European Arctic unpacks the theological significance of North Sámi indigenous Christianity demonstrating how the tension between Sámi nature centered Christianity and official Norwegian Lutheranism has broad theological relevance Focusing on Christian cosmological orientation the author argues that this is not fully given within the Christian faith itself It is partly shaped by the religious philosophical frameworks that various historical receptions of Christianity were filtered through The author substantiates that two different types of Christian cosmological orientation are negotiated in the North Sámi Christian experience one reflecting a Sámi historical reception of Christianity primarily filtered through the egalitarian world intuition of the Sámi indigenous tradition another reflecting official Norwegian Lutheranism primarily filtered through a Greek hierarchical world construct passed down among European intellectual elites The argument is developed through thick description of local everyday Christianity among reindeer herding river and sea Sámi communities in Finnmark Norway through critical engagement with historical and contemporary Lutheranism and through constructive dialogue with African and Native American theologies The author suggests that the egalitarian multi relational logic of Sámi nature centered Christianity points beyond the hierarchical binaries delimiting much of the theological imagination of dominant Christian theologies
