Split Level Christians:

Split Level Christians Virgie M. McIntyre, 1993 Split-level Christianity Jaime C. Bulatao, 1966 Comparing Christianities April D. DeConick, 2023-10-09 A ground breaking introductory textbook for the study of the New Testament and the first Christians written for the next generation of students Comparing Christianities An Introduction to the New Testament and the First Christians maps the historical rise of Christianity out of a network of early Christian movements This major new textbook systematically explores the struggles to define the faith by presenting Christianity as the result of a lengthy process of religious consolidation which emerged from a landscape of persistent Christian diversity The book delves into the history of the first five generations of Christians from Paul to Origen The first chapter considers the challenges of constructing Christian histories and offers a new model of Christian families to organize and explain the emergence and competition of different varieties of Christianity Each successive chapter focuses on key issues that Christian leaders engaged over the centuries demonstrating how the questions they posed and the answers they provided gave Christianity its distinct shape As the movements competed for social advantage Christians began identifying certain Christian movements as enemies and consolidated against them The final chapter schematizes the Christians studied in the book into three families of Christian movements based on the particular God they worshipped and other shared patterns of thought and practice This chapter also explains where the varieties of Christianities came from and how the process of consolidation undertaken by some churches shaped Christian identity within a forge of intolerance that still affects us today Comparing Christianities explores the answers to questions Who were the early Christians and what did they write What did Christians think about sex women immortality Judaism suffering and death What rituals did the first Christians practice and what did their religious experiences mean to them How did Christians live in a Roman dominated world How did the first Christians explain the origins of their movement Comparing Christianities An Introduction to the New Testament and the First Christians serves as an excellent primary textbook in undergraduate classrooms for Introduction to Christianity Introduction to Religion New Testament Studies Christian Origins World Religions and Western World Religions and a thought provoking resource for anyone wishing to know more about Christianity Phenomena and Their Interpretation Jaime C. Bulatao, 1992 The Great CoMission Brooks St. Clair Morton, 2012-11-02 This book presupposes that pastors and seminarians deeply desire to answer the question of all questions how do I make disciples of Jesus Christ The Great CoMission Making Sense of Making Disciples is a helpful guide for pastors in the field yet meaty enough for seminarians in the classroom In The Great CoMission readers will encounter useful principles for discipleship and solid biblical theology for ministry This unique book approaches the Great Commission from a rite of passage framework therefore allowing for serious consideration of the internal mechanisms of Matthew 28 16 20 by focusing on the relationship between initiation instruction and Jesus promise to be with the church to the end of the age Morton writes from a Wesleyan cross cultural and missiological perspective avoiding the popular method of using the Great Commission merely as a holy launching pad for retelling the story of a mega church
