Spohrstring Qts Vol 06:

String Quartets in Beethoven's Europe Nancy November, 2022-04-19 String Quartets in Beethoven's Europe is the first detailed study of string quartets in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Europe. It brings together the work of nine scholars who explore little studied aspects of this multi-faceted genre. Together, this book's chapters deal with compositional responses to Beethoven's string quartets and the prestige of the genre, varied compositional practices in string quartet writing with a particular emphasis on texture and performance elements, and the reception of Beethoven's string quartets ca. 1800. They include discussions of quartets composed for the amateur and connoisseur markets in Beethoven's Europe, virtuosity, the French Violin School, and the quatuor brillant, the relationship between quartet composers and their audiences during Beethoven's era, and the cross-pollination of quartet styles in Europe's musical centers such as Vienna, Paris, and St. Petersburg.

Concerto No. 6 Louis Spohr, One of the leading composers of instrumental music of the early Romantic period, Louis Spohr was a violinist, composer, and conductor. In addition to symphonic works, string quartets, and other solo and chamber music, he composed operas, operettas, and songs. There has been a trend starting in the late 20th century to revive his instrumental works and songs.

The Gramophone, 1926 String Quartets, Opp. 19 and 29

Friedrich Dotzauer, Cellist Friedrich Dotzauer (1783-1860), though best remembered for his pedagogical legacy, was also a prolific and successful composer and a pioneering string quartet performer in Leipzig and Dresden. In addition to many solo works for his own instrument, Dotzauer wrote some twenty-five string quartets and numerous other chamber works, many of which feature the cello in a prominent role. This edition presents four of Dotzauer's quartets that together demonstrate the versatility of his writing. The three quartets of opus 19, with their more modest technical demands and the conventional distribution of material between the four instruments, were likely intended for amateur private music-making, whereas the opus 29 quartet, which features more virtuosic writing for the first violin and cello, was probably conceived for the public concert sphere. Both opuses reveal Dotzauer's noteworthy compositional skills through their comprehensive development of motives and sophisticated treatment of texture and form.

Concerto No. 12 Louis Spohr, One of the leading composers of instrumental music of the early Romantic period, Louis Spohr was a violinist, composer, and conductor. In addition to symphonic works, string quartets, and other solo and chamber music, he composed operas, operettas, and songs. There has been a trend starting in the late 20th century to revive his instrumental works and songs.

String Quartets Mara Parker, 2013-05-13 This research guide is an annotated bibliography of sources dealing with the string quartet. This second edition is organized as in the original publication: chapters for general references, histories, individual composers, aspects of performance, facsimiles, and critical editions, and miscellaneous topics, and has been updated to cover research since publication of the first edition. Listings in the previous volume have been updated to reflect the burgeoning interest in this genre, social aspects, newly issued critical editions, doctoral dissertations. It also offers commentary on online links, databases.
