Cover Stories (Routledge Revivals) Michael Denning, 2014-07-11 First published in 1987 this title tracks the spy thriller from John Buchanan to Eric Ambler Ian Fleming and John Le Carr and shows how these tales of spies moles and the secret service tell a history of modern society translating the political and cultural transformations of the twentieth century into the intrigues of a shadow world of secret agents Combining cultural history with narrative analysis Cover Stories explores the two main traditions of the thriller the thriller of the work in which bureaucratic routines are invested with political meaning and the thriller of leisure in which the sports and games that kill time become a time of dangerous political contests

Examining the characteristic narrative structures of the spy novel the adventure formulas and the plots of betrayal disguise and doubles Denning shows how they attempt to resolve crises and contradictions in ideologies of nation and empire and of class and gender

Frontiers for Peace in the Medieval North Ian Peter Grohse, 2017-04-18 In Frontiers for Peace in the Medieval North The Norwegian Scottish Frontier c 1260 1470 Ian Peter Grohse examines social and political interactions in Orkney a Norwegian held province with long and intimate ties to the Scottish mainland Commonly portrayed as the epicentre of political tension between Norwegian and Scottish fronts Orkney appears here as a medium for diplomacy between monarchies and as an avenue for interface and cooperation between neighbouring communities Removed from the national heartlands of Scandinavia and Britain Orcadians fostered a distinctly local identity that although rooted in Norwegian law and civic organization featured a unique cultural accent engendered through Scottish immigration This study of Orcadian experiences encourages greater appreciation of the peaceful dimensions of pre modern European frontiers

The period between the World Wars was one of the richest and most inventive in the long history of British literature Interwar literature stood apart by virtue of the sheer intelligence of the enquiries it undertook into the technological mediation of experience After around 1925 literary works began to examine the sorts of behavior made possible for the first time by virtual interaction And they began to fill up too with the look sound smell taste and feel of the new synthetic and semi synthetic materials that were reshaping everyday modern life New media and new materials gave writers a fresh opportunity to reimagine both how lives might be lived and how literature might be written Today such material and immaterial mediations have become even more decisive Communications technology is an attitude before it is a machine or a set of codes It is an idea about the prosthetic enhancement of our capacity to communicate The writers who first woke up to this fact were not postwar postmodern or post anything else some of the best of them lived and wrote in the British Isles in the period between the World Wars

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
