The Dead Tree Metamorphosis:

The Dead Tree Cass Hook, 1984-06-01 Metamorphosis David Gallagher, 2009 The origins of selected instances of metamorphosis in Germanic literature are traced from their roots in Ovid's Metamorphoses grouped roughly on an ascending evolutionary scale invertebrates birds animals and mermaids Whilst a broad range of mythological legendary fairytale and folktale traditions have played an appreciable part Ovid's Metamorphoses is still an important comparative analysis and reference point for nineteenth and twentieth century German language narratives of transformations Metamorphosis is most often used as an index of crisis an existential crisis of the subject or a crisis in a society's moral social or cultural values Specifically selected texts for analysis include Jeremias Gotthelf's Die schwarze Spinne 1842 with the terrifying metamorphoses of Christine into a black spider the metamorphosis of Gregor Samsa in Kafka's Die Verwandlung 1915 ambiguous metamorphoses in E T A Hoffmann's Der goldne Topf 1814 Hermann Hesse's Piktors Verwandlungen 1925 Der Steppenwolf 1927 and Christoph Ransmayr's Die letzte Welt 1988 Other mythical metamorphoses are examined in texts by Bachmann Fouqué Fontane Goethe Nietzsche Nelly Sachs Thomas Mann and Wagner and these and many others confirm that metamorphosis is used historically scientifically for religious purposes to highlight identity sexuality a dream state or for metaphoric metonymic or allegorical reasons Apocalypse and/or Metamorphosis Norman O. Brown, 2023-09-01 Here is the final volume of Norman O Brown's trilogy on civilization and its discontents on humanity's long struggle to master its instincts and the perils that attend that denial of human nature Following on his famous books Life Against Death and Love's Body this collection of eleven essays brings Brown's thinking up to 1990 and the fall of Communism in Eastern Europe Brown writes that the prophetic tradition is an attempt to give direction to the social structure precipitated by the urban revolution to resolve its inherent contradictions to put an end to its injustice inequality anomie the state of war that has been its history from start to finish Affiliating himself with prophets from Muhammad to Blake and Emerson Brown offers further meditations on what's wrong with Western civilization and what we might do about it Thus the duality in his title crisis and the hope for change In pieces both poetic and philosophical Brown's attention ranges over Greek mythology Islam Spinoza and Finnegan's Wake The collection includes an autobiographical essay musing on Brown's own intellectual development The final piece Dionysus in 1990 draws on Freud and the work of Georges Bataille to link the recent changes in the world's economies with mankind's primordial drive to accumulation waste and death Here is the final volume of Norman O Brown's trilogy on civilization and its discontents on humanity's long struggle to master its instincts and the perils that attend that denial of human nature Following on his famous books Life Against Death Selected Papers on Ancient Literature and its Reception Philip Russell Hardie, 2023-08-21 This volume gathers together about two thirds of the articles and essays published between 1983 and 2021 by Philip Hardie whose work on ancient literature has been of seminal importance in the field The centre of gravity lies in late Republican and Augustan poetry in particular Lucretius Virgil and Ovid with important contributions on wider Augustan culture on Neronian and Flavian epic on the Latin poetry of late antiquity and on the reception of Latin poetry narrative from the creation of the world to his own sophisticated times illustrating the cruelty of jealous gods the pathos of human love and the imaginative fantasy of flight monsters magic and illusion Elaine Fantham introduces the reader not only to this marvelous and complex narrative poem but to the Greek and Roman traditions behind Ovid's tales of transformation and a selection of the images and texts that it inspired Metamorphosis of the Cassowaries Alfred Gell, 2020-10-09 In this substantial book Gell guides the reader systematically through an analysis of the social structure language and ritual of the Umedia Punda community of the West Sepik district One of the central areas explored is the ida fertility ritual and the decipherment and the unravelling of symbolic relationships between words of similar construction One side is the analysis on the temporal sequence of events or ritual roles metamorphosing the cassowary nature into the new man culture and the on other side the associated harmonic levels which allude to body painting choreography and social status His approach substantiates the view that the ritual is not so much about the establishing of linear causality in the relationship between a society and its environment but with the act of poetic legislation over the course of nature Ovid's Myth of Pygmalion on Screen Paula James, 2011-10-06
