

The Death Of Tarzana Clayton

Ian Adam, Helen Tiffin

The Death Of Tarzana Clayton:

The Death of Tarzana Clayton Neville Farkis, 1985 A Postmodern Reader Joseph P. Natoli, Linda Hutcheon, 1993-01-01 These readings are organized into four sections The first explores the wellsprings of the debates in the relationship between the postmodern and the enterprise it both continues and contravenes modernism Here philosophers social and political commentators as well as cultural and literary analysts present controversial background essays on the complex history of postmodernism The readings in the second section debate the possibility or desirability of trying to define the postmodern given its cultural agenda of decentering challenging even undermining the guiding master narratives of Western culture The readings in the third section explore postmodernism's complicated complicity with these very narratives while the fourth section moves from theory to practice in order to investigate in a variety of fields the common denominators of the postmodern condition in action Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English

, 2021-11-01 Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English brings together the proceedings of a symposium organised by the editors at the University of Trento in 1990 At a time when the study of the post colonial literatures is gaining more widespread recognition scholars based mainly at universities in Italy and Germany were invited to address the manner in which writers are giving literary expression to the complexity of contemporary post colonial and multicultural societies and to consider from their differing perspectives on the new literatures central questions of formal experimentation linguistic innovation social and political commitment textual theory and cross culturality Focusing on such major writers such as Achebe Soyinka and Walcott as well as on lesser known figures such as Jack Davis Witi Ihimaera Rohinton Mistry and Manohar Malgonkar the contributors take up many themes characteristic of the new literatures the challenge posed to traditional authority the expression of national identity the role of literature in the liberation struggle modes of literary practice in multicultural societies the relationship of the new literatures in English to that of the former metropolitan centre and the complex intertextuality characterizing much of the literary production of post colonial societies

Writing Women Across Borders and Categories Martina Ghosh-Schellhorn, 2000 Generally held to be rigid borders and categories are nonetheless expanded when those bounded by the demarcations of hegemony challenge its strictures Significant instances of this constructive transgression can be found in the women's writing with which this collection of essays by international critics engages Whereas in travel writing by women Sarah Hobson Dervla Murphy Jan Morris transgression is seen to have settled into a familiar strategy in autobiography Ann Fanshawe Margaret Cavendish Christine Brooke Rose cultural analysis Virginia Woolf Marianna Torgovnick Donna Haraway and fiction Michelle Cliff Jeanette Winterson Ellen Galford Fiona Cooper women have succeeded in creating an innovative space for themselves The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute, John Grant, 1999-03-15 Like its companion volume The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction this massive reference of 4 000 entries covers all aspects of fantasy from literature to art Historical Dictionary of Fantasy

Literature Allen Stroud, 2023-06-12 Fantasy is both old and new In the ancient past stories of magic where supernatural creatures existed the gods walked the earth and heroes saved their civilizations from the dark fate that awaited them were intermingled with history religion and fact It is only in the last few hundred years that a conscious suspension of disbelief has allowed us to return to fantasy the literature of the impossible and appreciate it for its craft and storytelling once more Historical Dictionary of Fantasy Literature Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction an extensive bibliography and cross referenced entries on more than 800 authors ranging across the entire historical spectrum More than 200 other entries describe the fantasy sub genres key images in fantasy literature technical terms used in fantasy criticism and the intimately convoluted relationship between literary fantasies scholarly fantasies and lifestyle fantasies This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about fantasy literature

Past the Last Post Ian Adam, Helen Tiffin, 1991 This book is an examination of two major literary movements which are often misleadingly conflated The post colonial differs from the post modern in its provenance in former British colonies and dominions in its historical reach extending from the time of Imperial dominance down to the contemporary in its critical commitment to context and in its development of an independent body of theory

The A to Z of Fantasy Literature Brian Stableford, 2009-08-13 Once upon a time all literature was fantasy set in a mythical past when magic existed animals talked and the gods took an active hand in earthly affairs As the mythical past was displaced in Western estimation by the historical past and novelists became increasingly preoccupied with the present fantasy was temporarily marginalized until the late 20th century when it enjoyed a spectacular resurgence in every stratum of the literary marketplace Stableford provides an invaluable guide to this sequence of events and to the current state of the field The chronology tracks the evolution of fantasy from the origins of literature to the 21st century The introduction explains the nature of the impulses creating and shaping fantasy literature the problems of its definition and the reasons for its changing historical fortunes The dictionary includes cross referenced entries on more than 700 authors ranging across the entire historical spectrum while more than 200 other entries describe the fantasy subgenres key images in fantasy literature technical terms used in fantasy criticism and the intimately convoluted relationship between literary fantasies scholarly fantasies and lifestyle fantasies The book concludes with an extensive bibliography that ranges from general textbooks and specialized accounts of the history and scholarship of fantasy literature through bibliographies and accounts of the fantasy literature of different nations to individual author studies and useful websites

100 Must-read Fantasy Novels Nick Rennison, Stephen E. Andrews, 2009-09-28 Fantasy is one of the most visible genres in popular culture we see the creation of magical and imagined worlds and characters in every type of media with very strong fan bases in tow This latest guide in the successful Bloomsbury Must Read series covers work from a wide range of authors Tolkien Philip Pullman Terry Pratchett Michael Moorcock Rudyard Kipling and C S Lewis to very contemporary writers such as Garth Nix and Steven Erikson If you want to expand your range of reading or deepen your understanding of this genre this is the best place to start Colonization, Violence, and Narration in White South African Writing Rosemary Jane Jolly, 1996 The representation of pain and suffering in narrative form is an ongoing ethical issue in contemporary South African literature Can violence be represented without sensationalistic effects or alternatively without effects that tend to be conservative because they place the reader in a position of superiority over the victim or the perpetrator Jolly looks at three primary South African authors Andr Brink Breyten Breytenbach and J M Coetzee to consider violence in the context of apartheid and colonialism and their inherent patriarchies Jolly also discusses the violence attendant upon the act of narration in the broader context of critiques of Kafka Freud Hegel the postcolonial critics Jan Mohamed and Bhabha and feminists such as Susan Suleiman
