The Demise Of Luleta Jones

Mark Allen Boone

The Demise Of Luleta Jones:

The Demise of Luleta Jones Mark Allen Boone, 2006 This novel is both a mystery and a social commentary on the social and personal lives of African Americans The mystery concerns investigative reporter Theophilous Pugh who is uncovering facts about the death of a school teacher The social commentary concerns the consequences of gifted Blacks that try and cross over a narrow minded community s social mores The Chicago of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2011-02-01 The importance of Chicago in American culture has made the city s place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on Chicago centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The Chicago of Fiction A Resource Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 1 200 works of fiction significantly set in Chicago and published between 1852 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 , 2008-02 Music News , 1923 Book Review Index , 2003 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Kissing Time Ivan Caryll, Pelham Grenville Wodehouse, 1919 The Black Tradition in American Modern Dance Gerald Eugene Myers, 1988 Human Trafficking Sasha Jespersen, Rune Henriksen, Anne-Marie Barry, Michael Jones, 2019-11-01 Human trafficking brings to mind gangsters forcing people often women and girls to engage in dangerous activities against their will under threat of violence However human trafficking is not limited to the sex trade and this picture is inadequate It occurs in many different industries domestic service construction factory labour on farms and fishing boats and targets people from all over the globe Human trafficking is a much more complicated and nuanced picture than its common representations Victims move through multiple categories along their journey and at their destination shifting from smuggled migrant to trafficking victim and back again several times The emergence of a criminal pyramid scheme also makes many victims complicit in their own exploitation Finally the threat posed by the involvement of organised crime is little understood The profit motives and violence that come with such crime make human trafficking more dangerous for its victims and difficult to detect or address Drawing on field research in source transit and destination countries the authors analyse trafficking from four countries Albania Eritrea Nigeria and Vietnam What emerges is a business model that evolves in response to changes in legislation governance and law enforcement capacities
