The Depletion Myth Sherry H. Olson, 1971 Undoubtedly the best narrative and critical analysis of the conservation movement of the Progressive period Oregon Historical Quarterly

The Long-Term Adequacy of World Timber Supply Roger A. Sedjo, Kenneth S. Lyon, 2015-06-18 Projecting modest future growth for both prices and harvest levels this study first published in 1990 provides theoretical and empirical justification for challenging the conventional wisdom that real timber prices will rise for the indefinite future The study presents fifty year projections of regional and world harvest levels world market price and investments in forest regeneration by region This book will be of particular interest to students of economics and environmental studies

Current Issues in Natural Resource Policy Paul R. Portney, 2016-03-17 This volume offers an objective view of some of the most critical issues in natural resources Written in nontechnical language it uses ideas drawn from economics to look at the issues examine how government laws and policies have caused some of them arise and to find ways in which problems can be lessened Originally published in 1982 this is a valuable resource for students interested in environmental studies and public policy

Timber Supply, Land Allocation, and Economic Efficiency William F. Hyde, 2013-11-26 First Published in 2011 This is the sixth volume in the Forests Lands and Recreation set of ten volumes This text is one of many on the topic of timber supply a perpetually central issue in forest economics and policy But it is also something else It is an attempt to examine the economic efficiency of investments in timber production Special attention is directed to the increasingly important issue of investments in forestland particularly public forestland where allocation of land between timber production and other forest uses is an issue of national policy importance

A Burning Issue Robert Henry Nelson, 2000 Created in the early 20th century to provide scientific management of the nation's forests the U S Forest Service was for many years regarded as a model agency in the federal government The author contends that this reputation is undeserved and the Forest Service's performance today is unacceptable Not only has scientific management proven impossible in practice it is also objectionable in principle Furthermore the author argues that the Forest Service lacks a coherent vision and prefers to sponsor only fashionable environmental solutions most recently ecosystem management Describing its history and failures the author advocates replacing the service with a decentralized system to manage the protection of national forests

Water, Land, and Law in the West Donald J. Pisani, 1996 The series presents an interdisciplinary approach to the use and misuse of resources in the American West This volume comprises essays written between 1982 and 1994 and previously published in journals such as Western Historical Quarterly J of American History and Environmental History Review Pisani one of the nation's leading environmental and Western historians highlights the central role played by land water and timber allocation in the American West and shows how efforts to achieve justice and efficiency were compromised by the region's obsession with achieving rapid economic growth Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Atlas of U.S. and Canadian Environmental History Char Miller, 2003-08-08 This visually dynamic historical atlas chronologically covers American environmental history through the use of four color maps photos and diagrams and in written entries from well known scholars Organized into seven categories each chapter covers agriculture wildlife and forestry land use and management technology and industry polluti Manufacturing David O. Whitten,Bessie E.
