The Devils Birthday The Bridges To Arnhem 1944:

The Devil's Birthday Geoffrey Powell, 2009-04-03 A WWII veteran combines firsthand immediacy with perceptive analysis in this vividly detailed history of the Battle of Arnhem The Allied effort to liberate the Netherlands faced a brutal setback at the Battle of Arnhem where the men of the 1st British Airborne Division showed unsurpassed valor in the face of overwhelming opposition The dramatic defeat immortalized in the famous film A Bridge Too Far is recounted here by Major Geoffrey Powell who commanded C Company of the 156th Battalion and who valorously led the entire battalion through and out of the onslaught In The Devil's Birthday Powell draws on his own experience of the fighting while offering a deeply researched assessment of the operation and its execution Casualties during the battle were appalling The brave and enduring Dutch people suffered catastrophically while German morale was strengthened at a time of otherwise ebbing fortunes But the hard lessons of Arnhem will not be forgotten Arnhem 1944 Dilip Sarkar, 2018-11-30 The airborne battle for the bridges across the Rhine at Arnhem ranks amongst the Second World War's most famous actions inspiring innumerable books and the star-studded 1977 movie This book however is unique deeply moved the author provides a fresh narrative and approach concentrating on the tragic stories of individual casualties These men were killed at different junctures in the fighting often requiring forensic analysis to ascertain their fates Wider events contextualize the author's primary focus effectively resurrecting casualties through describing their backgrounds previous experience and tragic effect on their families In particular the emotive and unresolved issue of the many still missing is explored During the course of his research the author made numerous trips to Arnhem and Oosterbeek traveled miles around the UK and spent countless hours communicating with the relatives of casualties achieving their enthusiastic support This detailed work conducted sensitively and with dignity ensures that these moving stories are now recorded for posterity Included are the stories of Private Albert Willingham who sacrificed his life to save civilians Major Frank Tate machine-gunned against the backdrop of blazing buildings around Arnhem Bridge family man Sergeant George Thomas whose anti-tank gun is displayed today outside the Airborne Museum Hartenstein and Squadron Leader John Gilliard DFC father of a baby son who perished flying his Stirling through a hail of shot and shell during an essential resupply drop Is Private Gilbert Anderson who remains missing actually buried as an unknown the author asks Representing the Poles is Lance Corporal Czeslaw Gajewnik who drowned whilst escaping the hell of Oosterbeek and accounts by Dutch civilians emphasize the shared suffering sharply focussed by the tragedy of Luuk Buist killed protecting his family The sensitivity still surrounding German casualties is also explained This raw personal side of war the hopes and fears of ordinary men thrust into extraordinary circumstances is both deeply moving and revealing no longer are these just names carved on headstones or memorials in a distant land Through this thorough investigative work supported by those who remember them the casualties live again their silent voices heard through friends relatives comrades and unpublished letters So let us return to the fateful autumn of 1944 and meet those fighting in the skies on the landing grounds in the streets and woods of Oosterbeek and on the bridge too far at Arnhem Now the casualties can tell their own stories as we join this remarkable journey of discovery The Battle for Arnhem 1944-1945 Anthony Tucker-Jones, 2020-11-12 A photographic history of WWII's Operation Market Garden and the Allies quest for the famed Bridge Too Far Operation Market Garden September 1944 the Netherlands Three parachute drops and one armored charge The prize was the last bridge at Arnhem over the Neder Rijn Taken intact it would provide the Allies with a backdoor into Germany the famous Bridge Too Far This was one of the most audacious and imaginative operations of the war and it failed Anthony Tucker Jones's photographic history with a sequence of almost 200 archive photographs accompanied by a detailed narrative describes the landing of British and American parachutists and glider troops At the same time British tanks spearheaded a sixty mile dash along Hell's Highway to link up with the lightly armed and heavily outnumbered airborne forces Most books about the resulting battle concentrate on the struggle at Arnhem and the heroism of the British 1st Airborne Division This book puts that episode in its wider context In particular it focuses on the efforts of the US 101st and 82nd airborne divisions to hold off counterattacks by German battlegroups during the tanks advance The photographs give a dramatic insight into all sides of a remarkable but ill fated operation which has fascinated historians and been the subject of controversy ever since They also portray as only photographs can the men who were involved and the places and conditions in which the fighting took place Proposed Airborne Assaults during Operation Overlord James Daly, 2025-11-04 This well researched book provides an inside look at the complex planning required to mount an airborne operation Airborne specialists should find it a useful read The Journal of the Air Force Historical Foundation The airborne landings on D Day played a major part in the success of the largest amphibious operation ever mounted Yet just over three months later Operation Market Garden the largest airborne operation ever attempted failed to take all its objectives It is notable however that in the film A Bridge Too Far Dirk Bogarde's Lieutenant General Boy Browning refers to a large number of cancelled operations since D Day What were these operations Why do we know so little about them And what can they tell us about Allied airborne planning and the way that the allies fought in 1944 As James Daly reveals plans were considered or drawn up for a number of ambitious airborne assaults that could have formed part of the Allies efforts to break out of the beachheads Of these three operations Wastage Tuxedo and Wild Oats might well have been part of the fighting in Normandy itself Operation Wild Oats for example was to see the 1st Airborne Division help capture Caen in conjunction with the British I Corps and XXX Corps Three others operations Beneficiary Hands Up and Swordhilt were to be combined airborne and amphibious descents to seize the vitally important ports of St Malo and Brest as well as the Quiberon Bay area in southern Brittany Airborne planning was frenetic and wide ranging during this period One operation would have seen gliders landing on a beach another would have seen the airborne troops taking off without maps Some of them were months in the planning others were merely an idea that lasted for a matter of days Far from being standalone airborne operations all of them were part of a wider strategy and several were major combined operations effectively small scale D Days complete with seaborne landings For the first time this book looks at each of these operations in detail Using new research and drawing on original planning documents including maps of planned drop zones and operational areas most of which have never been published before James Daly explores a little known aspect of the Allies landings in France in the summer of 1944 Operation Market-Garden 1944 (2) Ken Ford,2016-11-17 With Germany being pushed back across Europe the Allied forces looked to press their advantage with Operation Market Garden a massive airborne assault that if successful could have shortened the war in the west considerably The ground advance consisted of an armoured thrust by the British XXX Corps while the US 82nd and 101st US Airborne Divisions secured the bridges at Eindhoven and Nijmegen and the British 1st Airborne Division and Polish 1st Airborne Brigade were tasked with seizing the final bridge at Arnhem to secure the route What they did not realise was that the 9 SS and 10 SS Panzer Divisions were nearby ready to reinforce the local garrison and fend off the Allied assault Focusing on the role played by these British and Polish troops Ken Ford examines Operation Market Garden in its entirety from the early planning through to the early setbacks and eventual catastrophic conclusion Air Power at the Battlefield Dr Ian Gooderson,2013-05-13 Ian Gooderson presents a study of close air support in World War II with the analysis focusing on the use of tactical air power by British and American forces during the campaigns in Italy and northwestern Europe between 1943 and 1945 The Last German Victory Aaron Bates,2021-12-22 Operation Market Garden the Allied airborne invasion of German occupied Holland in September 1944 is one of the most famous and controversial Allied failures of the Second World War Many books have been written on the subject seeking to explain the defeat Historians have generally focused on the mistakes made by senior commanders as they organized the operation The choice of landing zones has been criticized as has the structure of the airlift plan But little attention has been paid to the influence that combat doctrine and training had upon the relative performance of the forces involved And it is this aspect that Aaron Bates emphasizes in this perceptive closely argued and absorbing re evaluation of the battle As he describes each phase of the fighting he shows how German training which gave their units a high degree of independence of action better equipped them to cope with the confusion created by the surprise Allied attack In contrast the British forces were hampered by their rigid and centralized approach which made it more difficult for them to adapt to the chaotic situation Aaron Bates s thought provoking study sheds fresh light on the course of the fighting around Arnhem and should lead to a deeper understanding of one of the most remarkable episodes in the final stage of the Second World War in western Europe City Fights John Antal,2007-12-18 Urban terrain will likely be the predominant battlefield of future wars As September 11 and Somalia proved hostile forces are now engaging America differently avoiding open combat with our enormous military striking at our civic centers or dragging us into theirs But urban warfare isn t new it is as old as the battle of Jericho Now an incomparable collection written by esteemed military veterans some currently serving others civilian analysts re creates the last century's most astonishing examples of this kind of fighting and offers important lessons for our future. Here are fourteen riveting histories that are both invaluable teaching tools for security leaders and engrossing accounts for any reader. They include William M. Waddell's Tai Erh Chuang 1938: The Japanese Juggernaut Smashed (How China defeated the Japanese in battle for the first time in three hundred and forty years by using a city only as a pivot area and attacking the exposed flank and rear ranks of its unprepared enemy); Eric M. Walters's Stalingrad 1942: With Will, a Weapon and a Watch (The largest and longest running urban fight of the twentieth century in which the Red Army became the tortoise to the Germans' hare); Norm Cooling's Hue City 1968: Winning a Battle While Losing a War (The six day fight for the cultural center of Vietnam revealed how the American military's distrust of the media made it fail to expose the enemy's mass executions and lose the all important information war); And these eleven additional accounts: Warsaw 1944: Uprising in Eastern Europe by Maj David M. Toczek; Arnhem 1944: Airborne Warfare in the City by Lt Col G. A. Lofaro; Troyes France 1944: All Guns Blazing by Col Peter R. Mansoor; Budapest 1944-45: Bloody Contest of Wills by Col Peter B. Zwack; Aschaffenburg 1945: Cassino on the Main River by Mark J. Reardon; Manila 1945: City Fight in the Pacific by Col Kevin C. M. Benson; Berlin 1945: Backs Against the Wall by Maj Mike Boden; Jaffa 1948: Urban Combat in the Israeli War of Independence by Benjamin Runkle; Seoul 1950: City Fight after Inchon by Maj Thomas A. Kelley; Da Nang Hoi An: A Tank Skirmish in Quang Nam Province by Dennis C. Fresch; Evolution of Urban Combat Doctrine by Mark J. Reardon.

From the 1944 Warsaw uprising that almost caused the complete destruction of Poland's capital to the crucial near forgotten fight for Manila in 1945 from snipers and shoulder launched missiles to tunnels and tanks all aspects of the most important urban conflicts are revealed in stunning detail. Compelling and cautionary City Fights powerfully reminds us that in our ever more urbanized and vulnerable world if a state loses its cities it loses the war.

The Oxford Handbook of World War II G. Kurt Piehler, Jonathan A. Grant, 2023

World War II dramatically transformed human life and society resulting in the deaths of 100 million people and shaping the worldview and psyches of generations. The Oxford Handbook of World War II broadens traditional narratives of the war and in the process changes our understanding of this epic conflict. Spanning the rise and fall of the Versailles system to the postwar reintegration of veterans and the eventual commemoration of the conflict and its victims, The Oxford Handbook of World War II marks a landmark contribution to the historical literature of war.

General 'Boy' Richard Mead, 2011-02-23

This is the first biography of Boy Browning whose name is inextricably linked with the creation and employment of Britain's airborne forces in the Second World War. Commissioned into the Grenadier Guards, Browning served on the Western Front earning a DSO during the Battle of Cambrai. As Adjutant at Sandhurst he began the tradition of riding a horse up the steps at the end of the commissioning parade. Browning represented England and Great Britain as a hurdler at the 1928 Winter Olympics. In 1932 Browning married Daphne du Maurier who was ten years younger and became one of the 20th century's most enduring and popular novelists with titles such as Jamaica Inn and Rebecca. Browning commanded two brigades before being appointed to command 1 Airborne Division in 1941 later acting as Eisenhowers advisor on airborne warfare in the Mediterranean In 1944 he commanded 1st Airborne Corps which he took to Holland for Operation MARKET GARDEN that September Allegedly coining the phrase a bridge too far he has received much of the blame for the operations failure In late 1944 Browning became Chief of Staff to Mountbatten In 1948 he became Comptroller and Treasurer to Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip and then Treasurer to the latter following the Queens accession He was a close adviser to the Royal couple who respected and valued his judgment By this time Boy and Daphne lived separate lives with Boy working at the Palace in London and Daphne reluctant to leave her beloved Cornwall although the marriage remained intact Questions exist as to Daphnes sexuality and Boy had a succession of discrete mistresses After a nervous breakdown probably due to marriage problems he resigned in 1959 and retired to Cornwall Browning died in March 1965
