Émile Bréhier, 1969 The Hellenic Age Emile Bréhier, 1932 The Hellenic Age Émile Bréhier, 1969 The Cambridge History of Hellenistic Philosophy Keimpe Algra, 1999-12-09 A full account of the philosophy of the Greek and Roman worlds from the last days of Aristotle c 320 BC until 100 BC Hellenistic philosophy for long relatively neglected and unappreciated has over the last decade been the object of a considerable amount of scholarly attention Now available in paperback this 1999 volume is a general reference work which pulls the subject together and presents an overview The History is organised by subject rather than chronologically or by philosophical school with sections on logic epistemology physics and metaphysics ethics and politics It has been written by specialists but is intended to be a source of reference for any student of ancient philosophy for students of classical antiquity and for students of the philosophy of later periods Greek and Latin are used sparingly and always translated in the main text The History of Philosophy Emile Bréhier, 1963 A History of Ancient Philosophy III Giovanni Reale, 1985 Reale's volume supplies a synthesis previously lacking a synthesis in the historical treatment of the great philosophies of the Hellenistic Age the Academy the Peripatos the Stoa the Garden of Epicurus Scepticism and Eclecticism Reale's extensive and fully documented treatment of the major schools of the period is unified by his thesis that the ethics developed by these major schools were secular faiths that sprang from intuitions about the meaning of life first emotionally grasped and then systematically and rationally developed It is for this reason that the teachings of these schools endured almost continuously for about 500 years It is for the same reason that the founders of the schools were considered gods and were actually in a certain sense the saints of secular faiths and religions In this book Reale traces the decline of the philosophical schools of the classical period the post Platonic Academy the post Aristotelian Peripatos and the minor Socratic schools The destruction of the polis and the incapacity of the schools to address the concerns of the new age were the fertile grounds from which the new schools developed The Garden of Epicurus the Porch of Zeno and the sceptical movement initiated by Pyrrho form the core of the volume The volume contains a select bibliography and an index of names and Greek terms as well as an index of citations The History of Philosophy: The Hellenistic & Roman age Emile Bréhier, 1963
