Texts in Context David Boucher, 2012-12-06 The methodology of the study of the history of political thought is an area of study which has occupied my interests for nearly a decade I was introduced to the subject in University College Swansea My teachers there provided me with an excellent grounding in political studies I am particularly indebted to Bruce Haddock Peter Nicholson and W H Greenleaf Professor Greenleaf was kind enough to supply me with a copy of his bibliography and copies of two of his unpublished papers I continued to pursue my interest in methodology at the London School of Economics and Political Science I am indebted to Ken Minogue and Robert Orr who taught me there My greatest debt is to Dr Joseph Femia of the University of Liverpool who devoted a great deal of time to considering the arguments presented here His criticisms and suggestions for improvement proved to be invaluable I would also like to thank Alan Ryan for his general comments and encouraging advice It would be remiss of me if I neglected to express my gratitude to Dewi Beynon who was my first teacher of politics The research for this project was carried out in the following places The British Library of Political Science London The Sidney Jones Library University of Liverpool The National Library of Scotland Edinburgh The Main Library University of Edinburgh The Arts and Social Science Library University College Cardiff and the Bodleian Library Oxford

St. Thomas' Political Doctrine and Democracy Edward Francis Murphy, 1921 A List of the Principal Publications Issued from New Burlington Street, 1902 A Student's History of England from the Earliest Times to the Conclusion of the Great War Samuel Rawson Gardiner, 1920 'Greater India' and the Indian Expansionist Imagination, c. 1885-1965 Jolita Zabarskaitė, 2022-11-07 This book is the first systematic study of the genealogy discursive structures and political implications of the concept of Greater India implying a Hindu colonization of Southeast Asia and used by extension to argue for a past Indian greatness as a colonial power reproducible in the present and future From the 1880s to the 1960s protagonists of the Greater India theme attempted to make a case for the importance of an expansionist Indian civilisation in civilizing Southeast Asia The argument was extended to include Central Asia Africa North and South America and other regions where Indian migrants were to be found The advocates of this Indocentric and Hindu revivalist approach with Hindu and Indian often taken to be synonymous were involved in a quintessentially parochial project despite its apparently international dimensions to justify an Indian expansionist imagination that viewed India's past as a colonizer and civilizer of other lands as a model for the restoration of that past greatness in the future Zabarskaite shows that the crucial ideologues and elements used for the formation of the construct of Greater India can be traced to the svade movement of the turn of the century and that Greater India moved easily between the domains of the scholarly and the popular as it sought to establish itself as a form of nationalist self assertion
