The History Of The Canadian West Albertathe Pioneer Years:

Peel's Bibliography of the Canadian Prairies to 1953 Ernest Boyce Ingles, Bruce Braden Peel, Norman Merrill Distad, 2003-01-01 The Prairie Provinces cover Alberta Saskatchewan and Manitoba The First Dutch Settlement in Alberta Donald W. Sinnema, 2005 Translated from Dutch to English this collection of letters offers a unique perspective on the early pioneer years of the Dutch community in southeastern Alberta The letters provide first hand accounts of the preparations to immigrate the hardships of the pioneer years and the transformation from the most basic homesteading conditions to progressive rural communities including the towns of Granum Monarch and Nobleford In fact within just a decade new railroads towns churches schools and even telephone service had been established Based on extensive research the book also includes maps archival photographs and an appendix listing all the Dutch settlers in the region between the years of 1903 and 1914 The First Dutch Settlement in Alberta is an invaluable and fascinating collection of primary source material that offers a wealth of information for genealogists and historians and celebrates the pioneering spirit of Alberta's early Dutch community The Prairie West as Promised Land R. Douglas Francis, Chris Kitzen, 2007 Millions of immigrants were attracted to the Canadian West by promotional literature from the government in the late 19th century to the First World War bringing with them visions of opportunity to create a Utopian society or a chance to take control of their own destinies Canadian Government Railways Employees Magazine, 1927 The Limits of Labour David Bright, 2011-11-01 In a few short decades before the First World War Calgary was transformed from a frontier outpost into a complex industrial metropolis With industrialization there emerged a diverse and equally complex working class David Bright explores the various levels of class formation and class identity in the city to argue that Calgary's reputation as a prewar centre of labour conservatism is in need of revision Bright also delineates the trials of the Calgary labour movement in the 1920s Internal divisions and dissent prevented the movement from realizing the potential strength of the working class Instead even as local capitalism restructured itself political and industrial labour organizations wilfully fragmented their own base of support In particular they failed to address the concerns and needs of the growing number of unemployed in the city a neglect that foreshadowed events of the 1930s This failure left the labour movement unable to meet the challenge of the Great Depression In part at least the demise of labour as a viable political alternative in Calgary paved the way for the rise of Social Credit Using Calgary as a model The Limits of Labour reasserts the need to place class formation at the heart of the development of western Canada and provides an historical context to the renewed struggle of labour for social justice in the 1990s Creating Societies Dirk Hoerder, 2000 The birth of Canada as a society and a nation has often been told from the narrow perspective of the founding nations These versions have left little room for the everyday experiences of a wide variety of individual immigrants who have had to adjust Cattle Kingdom Edward Brado, 2004 One of the most colourful chapters in the history of North American settlement began in the 1880s when the rich Alberta grasslands spreading east from the foothills of the Rockies became the magnet for cattle ranching Award winning Cattle Kingdom provides readers with all the colourful tales of raffish characters political intrigues and partnerships fortunes made and lost and the harsh realities of prairie winters The era also gave us the mythic figure of the cowboy still prominent in Alberta today Nowhere is the story of ranching more rich and varied than in Alberta There was an assortment of high rollers big money men from the east English lords and remittance men along with refugees from the American west and ordinary folk seeking a homestead and a new dream The newly formed North West Mounted Police was on hand as well Famous ranches were created during this period including the Cochrane the Oxley and the North West Cattle Company Bar U The cast of characters included John Ware the brave and foolhardy Major General Thomas Bland Strange who had plans for a ranch for retired British army types and the scrappy Pat Burns who parlayed a small slaughterhouse in Calgary into a giant meat packing and cattle empire By the time of the first Calgary Stampede in 1912 the cattle kingdom was on the wane More and more settlers arrived and began fencing and farming the once limitless grazing lands And then came the discovery of oil But during its brief and brilliant season in the sun early ranching in Alberta put an indelible stamp on the history and culture of the Canadian west

The Directory of Museums & Living Displays Kenneth Hudson, Ann Nicholls, 1985-06-18 Annual Report ,1912 Sedimentary Cover of the Craton in Canada D.F. Stott, J.D. Aitken, 1993 The early chapters of the volume present data and interpretations of the geophysics of the craton and summarise with sequential maps the tectonic evolution of the craton The main body of the text and accompanying plates and figures present the stratigraphy structural history and economic geology of specific sedimentary basins and regions The volume concludes with a summary chapter in which the currently popular theories of cratonal tectonics are discussed and the unresolved questions are identified
