The Home Plot Women Writing And Domestic Ritual:

The Home Plot Ann Romines, 1992 Romines English George Washington U builds on feminist scholarship to show how domestic ritual the practice and tradition of housekeeping has helped shape the substance and tone of some of the best fiction by American women with particular reference to the work of Harriet Beecher Stowe Sarah Orne Jewett Mary Wilkins Freeman Willa Cather and Eudora Welty Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR At Home, at War Jennifer Anne Haytock, 2003 This study demonstrates that such literary divisions as war novel and domestic novel limit readers understanding of the ways these categories rely on and respond to each other Haytock argues that gender creates an ideological context through which both domesticity and war are viewed and understood issues of home and violence are intricately related for U S authors who wrote about the First World War Haytock explores what war and domestic texts represent in light of the deconstructionist said in its cultural and historical context and seeing what is not said Readers take food shelter and clothing for granted and yet the way we treat them is part of what allows us to define ourselves as civilized In war novels and domestic novels by Temple Bailey Ellen Glasgow Edith Wharton Willa Cather John Dos Passos Thomas Boyd Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner and Eudora Welty the idea of home and domestic rituals contribute to the creation of war propaganda the soldier s experience of war and the home front s ability to confront the war after the fact This approach helps literary criticism reject the separation of men s and women s writing particularly but not only their writing about war Undomesticated Ground Stacy Alaimo, 2019-01-24 From Mother Earth to Mother Nature women have for centuries been associated with nature Feminists troubled by the way in which such representations show women controlled by powerful natural forces and confined to domestic space have sought to distance themselves from nature In Undomesticated Ground Stacy Alaimo issues a bold call to reclaim nature as feminist space Her analysis of a remarkable range of feminist writings as well as of popular journalism visual arts television and film powerfully demonstrates that nature has been and continues to be an essential concept for feminist theory and practice Alaimo urges feminist theorists to rethink the concept of nature by probing the vastly different meanings that it carries She discusses its significance for Americans engaged in social and political struggles from for example the Indian Wars of the early nineteenth century to the birth control movement in the 1920s to contemporary battles against racism and heterosexism Reading works by Catherine Sedgwick Mary Austin Emma Goldman Nella Larsen Donna Haraway Toni Morrison and others Alaimo finds that some of these writers strategically invoke nature for feminist purposes while others cast nature as a postmodern agent of resistance in the service of both environmentalism and the women s movement By examining the importance of nature within literary and political texts this book greatly expands the parameters of the nature writing genre and establishes nature as a crucial site for the cultural work of feminism Time, Domesticity and Print Culture in Nineteenth-Century Britain M. Damkjær, 2016-03-29 This innovative study shows that nineteenth century texts gave domesticity not just a spatial but also a temporal dimension

Novels by Dickens and Gaskell as well as periodicals cookery books and albums all showed domesticity as a process Damkj r argues that texts material form had a profound influence on their representation of domestic time Willa Cather's

Transforming Vision Gary Brienzo,1994 Willa Cather s Transforming Vision New France and the American Northeast explores Cather s search for meaning and a domestic center in particular as her search was influenced by her feelings for New France and the American Northeast Including biography critical overview and primary research into both Cather s writing and some of her most unusual historical sources this study focuses on Shadows on the Rock while incorporating this pivotal novel into the larger pattern of Cather s growing need for belonging and order Shadows on the Rock set in the city of Quebec Kebec at the end of the seventeenth century is Cather s fullest expression of love for French culture and its adaptation to New World soil But more than a mere extolling of what Mme Auclair in Shadows proudly calls our way a skill with all things domestic that she boasts renders the French the most civilized people in Europe this novel is a statement of faith in the ability of both individuals and larger societal orders to work together for the creation of an all encompassing whole Writing at mid life after the recent illnesses and deaths of her parents Cather could posit in her story of New France a familial order much larger than the domestic heart of her earlier masterpiece My Antonia In all of Quebec as in the incomplete but fruitful home of the widowed apothecary Euclide Auclair and his daughter Cecile life is sustained by a merging of gender and social roles as a bishop can become the symbolic head of an entire church as well as of a troubled family and a bellicose count can play as warm and nurturing a role as the gentlest of parents Willa Cather's Canadian and Old World Connections Robert Thacker,Michael A. Peterman,1999-01-01 Cather Studies 4 contains eighteen essays and elaborates a theme Willa Cather s Canadian and Old World Connections Such connections are central to Cather s art and artistry She transported much from the Old World to the New shaping her antecedents to tell in new ways the stories of Nebraska of the American Southwest and especially of Quebec in Shadows on the Rock David Stouck details Cather s numerous Canadian connections Richard Millington treats her anthropological re creation of the cultural moment of seventeenth century Quebec and Fran ois Palteau Papin finds The Hidden French in Cather s English A volume of lively and informed criticism Cather Studies 4 vividly demonstrates Cather s artistry and her work s deep connections to the present cultural and critical moment Country Cottages Karen Sayer,2000 This text is about the country cottage It is a thematic social and cultural history of the country cottage as labourer s home as gendered space and as icon of Englishness

Communication and Women's Friendships Janet Doubler Ward,JoAnna Stephens Mink,1993 Eleven contributed essays discuss a variety of literary texts against a background of the historical and cultural aspects of women s friendships The listings of works cited and primary works discussed do not adequately substitute for an index Paper edition unseen 15 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR A Companion to American Fiction, 1865 - 1914 Robert Paul Lamb,G. R. Thompson,2008-04-15 A Companion to American Fiction 1865 1914 is a groundbreaking collection of essays written by leading critics for a wide audience of scholars students and interested general readers An exceptionally broad ranging and accessible Companion to the study of American fiction of the post civil war period and the early twentieth century Brings together 29 essays by top scholars each of which presents a synthesis of the best research and offers an original perspective Divided into sections on historical traditions and genres contexts and themes and major authors Covers a mixture of canonical and the non canonical themes authors literatures and critical approaches Explores innovative topics such as ecological literature and ecocriticism children s literature and the influence of Darwin on fiction Some Wild Visions Elizabeth Elkin Grammer, 2003 A study of seven autobiographies by women who defied the domestic ideology of 19th century America by serving as itinerant preachers Literally and culturally homeless all of them used their autobiographies to construct plausible identities as women and Christians

Enjoying the Melody of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within The Home Plot Women Writing And Domestic Ritual
