Joseph Mensah,2018-01-18 Since the 1980s the world has experienced an unprecedented push towards economic political social cultural financial and technological integration This integration is a key element of the process of globalization Much of this revolves around the tensions and conflicts inherent in globalization with emphasis on political economy but at the expense of the human factor HF which places people at the centre of all discussions about globalization This volume brings the HF into the debate and examines to what extent this hitherto marginalized concept holds the key to providing a holistic understanding and contestation of globalization The volume develops a distinct concept or framework of the human factor examines the role and significance in global change from an interdisciplinary perspective analyzes the extent and significance in contemporary globalization discourse and provokes further debate about the unresolved disputes surrounding globalization The account will help readers navigate the minefields of the globalization debate (Re)discovering the Human Element in Public Relations and Communication Management in Unpredictable Times Natalia

Rodríguez-Salcedo, Ángeles Moreno, Sabine Einwiller, Mónica Recalde, 2023-02-01 Re discovering the Human Element in Public Relations and Communication Management in Unpredictable rethinks what it means to put the person at the center of the organization's decisions The Human and the Machine in Literature and Culture Kate Foster, Molly Crozier, 2025-09-30

Automation is everywhere in the supermarket in home appliances and on our commutes While we worry about what automation means for human autonomy now human societies have long wondered about their replacement by machines The Human and the Machine in Literature and Culture explores the pervasive and long standing influence of automation on humanity by dismantling the prevalent future oriented perspective of many automation debates This collection examines how literature has conceptualized automation over centuries from utopian visions of a world liberated from work and domestic labour to dystopian futures in which humans are surplus to requirements We set out social and industrial developments which feed into discourses of automation and its mediation in literary cultures By bringing together theoretical approaches to real world automation with readings of its literary interpretations this volume demonstrates literature's role as a space for hypothesizing alternate realities making clear literature's propensity to inform our attitudes to real world phenomena
