Making the Human Corinne Mitsuye Sugino, 2024-11-15 From the debate over affirmative action to the increasingly visible racism

amidst the COVID 19 pandemic Asian Americans have emerged as key figures in a number of contemporary social controversies In Making the Human Race Allegory and Asian Americans Corinne Mitsuye Sugino offers the lens of racial allegory to consider how media institutional and cultural narratives mobilize difference to normalize a white Western conception of the human Rather than focusing on a singular arena of society Sugino considers contemporary sources across media law and popular culture to understand how they interact as dynamic sites of meaning making Drawing on scholarship in Asian American studies Black studies cultural studies communication and gender and sexuality studies Sugino argues that Asian American racialization and gendering plays a key role in shoring up abstract concepts such as meritocracy family justice diversity and nation in ways that naturalize hierarchy In doing so Making the Human grapples with anti Asian racism s entanglements with colonialism antiblackness capitalism and gendered violence

The Tao of Islam Sachiko Murata,1992-03-23 The Tao of Islam is a rich and diverse anthology of Islamic teachings on the nature of the relationships between God and the world the world and the human being and the human being and God Focusing on gender symbolism Sachiko Murata shows that Muslim authors frequently analyze the divine reality and its connections with the cosmic and human domains with a view toward a complementarity or polarity of principles that is analogous to the Chinese idea of yin yang Murata believes that the unity of Islamic thought is found not so much in the ideas discussed as in the types of relationships that are set up among realities She pays particular attention to the views of various figures commonly known as Sufis and philosophers since they approach these topics with a flexibility and subtlety not found in other schools of thought She translates several hundred pages most for the first time from more than thirty important Muslims including the Ikhwan al Safa Avicenna and Ibn al Arabi is the Human Being? Patrick R. Frierson,2013 Philosophers anthropologists and biologists have long puzzled over the question of human nature It is also a question that Kant thought about deeply and returned to in many of his writings In this lucid and wide ranging introduction to Kant s philosophy of human nature which is essential for understanding his thought as a whole Patrick R Frierson assesses Kant s theories and examines his critics He begins by explaining how Kant articulates three ways of addressing the question what is the human being the transcendental the empirical and the pragmatic He then considers some of the great theorists of human nature who wrestle with Kant s views such as Hegel Marx Darwin Nietzsche and Freud contemporary thinkers such as E O Wilson and Daniel Dennett who have sought biological explanations of human nature Thomas Kuhn Michel Foucault and Clifford Geertz who emphasize the diversity of human beings in different times and places and existentialist philosophers such as Sartre and Heidegger He argues that whilst these approaches challenge and enrich Kant s views in significant ways all suffer from serious weaknesses that Kant s anthropology can address Taking a core insight of Kant s that human beings are fundamentally free but finite he argues that it is the existentialists particularly

Sartre who are the most direct heirs of his transcendental anthropology The final part of the book is an extremely helpful overview of the work of contemporary philosophers particularly Christine Korsgaard and Jürgen Habermas Patrick R Frierson explains how these philosophers engage with questions of naturalism historicism and existentialism while developing Kantian conceptions of the human being Including chapter summaries and annotated further reading What is the Human Being is an outstanding introduction to some fundamental aspects of Kant's thought and a judicious assessment of leading theories of human nature It is essential reading for all students of Kant and the philosophy of human nature as well as those in related disciplines such as anthropology politics and sociology
