Smith,2016-05-17 When his teenage son Christopher brain damaged in an auto accident developed a 105 degree fever following weeks of unconsciousness John Campbell asked the attending physician for help The doctor refused Why bother The boy s life was effectively over Campbell refused to accept this verdict He demanded treatment and threatened legal action The doctor finally relented With treatment Christopher s temperature which had eventually reached 107 6 degrees subsided almost immediately Soon afterward the boy regained consciousness and was learning to walk again This story is one of many Wesley J Smith recounts in his award winning classic critique of the modern bioethics movement Culture of Death In this newly updated edition Smith chronicles how the threats to the equality of human life have accelerated in recent years from the proliferation of euthanasia and the Brittany Maynard assisted suicide firestorm to the potential for death panels posed by Obamacare and the explosive Terri Schiavo controversy Culture of Death reveals how more and more doctors have withdrawn from the Hippocratic Oath and how bioethicists influence policy by posing questions such as whether organs may be harvested from the terminally ill and disabled This is a passionate yet coolly reasoned book about the current crisis in medical ethics by an author who has made the new thanatology his consuming interest The Biblical Truth about

America's Death Penalty Dale S. Recinella, 2015-12-01 While secular support for capital punishment in America seems to be waning religious conservatives particularly in the Bible belt remain staunch advocates of the death penalty citing biblical law and practice to defend government sanctioned killing Dale S Recinella compares biblical teaching about the death penalty including such passages as eye for eye tooth for tooth life for life with the nation's current system of capital punishment and offers persuasive arguments for a faith based moratorium on and eventual abolition of executions Framing his careful and incisive analysis as a legal brief to those who believe the Bible mandates the ultimate punishment the author addresses two critical areas of inquiry what do the scriptures tell us about who is deserving of death and who has the authority to kill and what do they tell us about the required standards for execution and the plight of victims families Recinella's examination of the Hebrew Torah or Christian Pentateuch and the Talmud reveals that the biblical death penalty was not a simple system of swift retribution but a complex and practical set of laws that guided capital courts established under the Sanhedrin His scrutiny of these texts the Christian doctrine of atonement and Romans 13 in the Pauline Epistles draws parallels between the traditional biblical arguments used in favor of capital punishment and those used as the basis for pro slavery positions in the nineteenth century Demonstrating that both approaches are unsubstantiated in biblical terms Recinella debunks the accepted religious reasoning for support of the death penalty and shows instead that the Bible's strict conditions for sanctioning execution are at odds with the arbitrary ways in which capital punishment is administered in the United States He provides convincing evidence that a sentence of death in today's criminal justice system in fact fails to meet both the Bible's exacting procedural requirements and its strict limitations on judicial authority By providing actual scriptural language and foundation to counter the position that biblical truth justifies a pro death penalty stance this thoughtful solidly researched and well reasoned work will give pause to religious fundamentalists and challenge them to rethink their strongly held views on capital punishment

The Culture of Death Wesley J. Smith, 2010-10-06 When his teenaged son Christopher brain damaged in an auto accident developed a 106 degree fever following weeks of unconsciousness John Campbell asked the attending physician for help The doctor refused Why bother The boy's life was effectively over Campbell refused to accept this verdict He demanded treatment and threatened legal action The doctor finally relented With treatment Christopher's temperature subsided almost immediately Soon afterwards he regained consciousness and today he is learning to walk again This story is one of many Wesley Smith recounts in his groundbreaking new book The Culture of Death Smith believes that American medicine is changing from a system based on the sanctity of human life into a starkly utilitarian model in which the medically defenseless are seen as having not just a right but a duty to die Going behind the current scenes of our health care system he shows how doctors withdraw desired care based on Futile Care Theory rather than provide it as required by the Hippocratic Oath And how bioethicists influence policy by considering questions such as whether organs may be harvested from the terminally ill and disabled This is a passionate yet coolly reasoned book about the current crisis in medical ethics by an author who has made the new thanatology his consuming interest Preserve Us a Nation Charles Crismier,1994 The Destruction of the Christian Tradition Rama P. Coomaraswamy,2006-01-27 Concentrating on the post Vatican II revisions of its teachings this book tells the story of the destruction of the Roman Catholic tradition a defining event of the twentieth century The Ethics of Medical Involvement in Capital Punishment Joseph B.R. Gaie,2006-04-11 The morality of capital punishment has been debated for a long time This however has 1 not resulted in the settlement of the question either way Philosophers are still divided In this work I am not addressing the morality of capital punishment per se My question is different but related It is this Whether or not capital punishment is morally right is it moral or immoral for medical doctors to be involved in the practice To deal with this question I start off in Chapter One delineating the sort of involvement the medical associations consider to be morally problematic for medical doctors in capital punishment They make a distinction between what they call 2 medicalisation of and involvement in capital punishment and argue that there is a moral distinction between the two Whilst it is morally acceptable for doctors to be involved in capital punishment according to the medical associations it is immoral to medicalise the practice I clarify this position and show what moral issues arise I then suggest that there should not be a distinction between the two The medical associations argue that the medicalisation of capital punishment especially the use by medical doctors of lethal injection to execute condemned prisoners is immoral and therefore should be prohibited because it involves doctors in doing what is against the aims of medicine
