The Deerfield Reader:

The Deerfield Reader G. Alan Fraker (ed), Heise, Karinne T., joint author, Heise, Thomas A., joint author, 1996

The John McPhee Reader John McPhee, 2011-04-01 The John McPhee Reader first published in 1976 is comprised of selections from the author's first twelve books. In 1965 John McPhee published his first book A Sense of Where You Are; a decade later he had published eleven others. His fertility, his precision and grace as a stylist, his wit and uncanny brilliance in choosing subject matter, his crack storytelling skills have made him into one of our best writers, a journalist whom L. E. Sissman ranked with Liebling and Mencken, who Geoffrey Wolff said is bringing his work to levels that have no measurable limit, who has been called a master craftsman so many times that it is pointless to number them. The Reader, 1906 The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned, 1924

Looking for a Story Noel Rubinton, 2025-05-13 An annotated guide to the work of the Pulitzer Prize winning writer, teacher and pioneer of creative nonfiction, John McPhee has been a staff writer for The New Yorker since 1965 and has written more than thirty acclaimed books that began on the magazine's pages. But few readers know or fully appreciate the true breadth of his writing. Looking for a Story is a complete reader's guide to McPhee's vast published work, documenting much rarely seen or connected with McPhee, including remarkable early writing for Time magazine published without his name. In chronicling McPhee's career where he broke ground applying devices long associated with fiction to the literature of fact, Noel Rubinton gives insights into McPhee's techniques, choice of subjects and research methods, shedding light on how McPhee turns complicated subjects like geology into compelling stories. Beyond detailing more than seventy years of McPhee's writing, Rubinton recounts McPhee's half century as a Princeton University writing professor, a little known part of his legacy. McPhee inspired generations of students who wrote hundreds of books of their own, also catalogued here. With an incisive foreword by New Yorker staff writer and former McPhee student Peter Hessler, Looking for a Story also includes extensive annotated listings of articles about McPhee, reviews of his books and interviews, readings and speeches. Whether you are already an admirer of McPhee or new to his writings, this book provides an invaluable road map to his rich body of work.

A History of the Book in America Robert A. Gross, Mary Kelley, 2010-07-15 Volume Two of A History of the Book in America documents the development of a distinctive culture of print in the new American republic. Between 1790 and 1840, printing and publishing expanded, and literate publics provided a ready market for novels, almanacs, newspapers, tracts, and periodicals. Government business and reform drove the dissemination of print. Through laws and subsidies, state and federal authorities promoted an informed citizenry. Entrepreneurs responded to rising demand by investing in new technologies and altering the conduct of publishing. Voluntary societies launched libraries, lyceums, and schools and relied on print to spread religion, redeem morals, and advance benevolent goals. Out of all this ferment emerged new and diverse communities of citizens linked together in a decentralized print culture where citizenship meant literacy and print meant power. Yet in a diverse and far-flung nation regional differences persisted and older forms of oral and handwritten communication offered alternatives to print The early republic was a world of mixed media Contributors Elizabeth Barnes College of William and Mary Georgia B Barnhill American Antiquarian Society John L Brooke The Ohio State University Dona Brown University of Vermont Richard D Brown University of Connecticut Kenneth E Carpenter Harvard University Libraries Scott E Casper University of Nevada Reno Mary Kupiec Cayton Miami University Joanne Dobson Brewster New York James N Green Library Company of Philadelphia Dean Grodzins Massachusetts Historical Society Robert A Gross University of Connecticut Grey Gundaker College of William and Mary Leon Jackson University of South Carolina Richard R John Columbia University Mary Kelley University of Michigan Jack Larkin Clark University David Leverenz University of Florida Meredith L McGill Rutgers University Charles Monaghan Charlottesville Virginia E Jennifer Monaghan Brooklyn College of The City University of New York Gerald F Moran University of Michigan Dearborn Karen Nipps Harvard University David Paul Nord Indiana University Barry O Connell Amherst College Jeffrey L Pasley University of Missouri Columbia William S Pretzer Central Michigan University A Gregg Roeber Pennsylvania State University David S Shields University of South Carolina Andie Tucher Columbia University Maris A Vinovskis University of Michigan Sandra A Zagarell Oberlin College
