Ferreira-Pereira, 2014-01-10 This book examines the involvement of Portugal in the European integration process since the country signed the Accession Treaty in 1985 The volume elicits how Portugal has grasped opportunities and challenges emanating from its participation in the institutional regulatory and political frameworks of the European Union EU as these have become more intricate as well as intrusive It scrutinizes the adjustments and transformations that have taken place in Portuguese society politics and economics as well as in the country's international relations as engendered by its increasing enmeshment in the Community building dynamics It is divided into three main parts Part I focuses on the major changes within the domestic arena notably on the political economic and social fronts Part II addresses the adjustments that the Portuguese leadership had to make in order to secure the country's participation in key common policies and strategies Part III is centred on foreign policy and assesses and discusses the impact upon Portugal's international relations This book will be of interest to students and scholars of European politics EU studies comparative politics and those with a strong interest in Portugal The Mediterranean In The Age Of Globalization Natalia Ribas Mateos, The Mediterranean in the Age of Globalization is a welcome corrective to the tendency to present globalization as a homogenous concept and the failure to describe how it operates in specific regions Ribas Mateos examines globalization and migration across the Mediterranean using an innovative integrated framework so as to map social places by describing how social political cultural and economic forces are embedded within a globalizing environment The author articulates an original and compelling narrative mapping the Mediterranean as a global place where international and regional forces are intertwined in multiple threads In doing so she identifies two key components of globalization affecting specifically forms of welfare and issues of mobility in the context of a weakening European welfare state and the relocation and reinforcement of Mediterranean borders Nine Mediterranean cities are investigated as gateway cities which shape two major effects of globalization welfare and mobility The book challenges conventional North South perspectives and focuses and systematizes the way international migration should be conceptualized The originality of the book results from the author s fieldwork which is rich in descriptive detail and from a theory centered around global perspectives Seven case studies in Southern Europe Algeciras Athens Barcelona Lisbon Naples Turin and Thrace deal with issues related to migration and the welfare state She also includes two ethnographies that represent two Mediterranean gateways in the North South Mediterranean division Tangiers in Morocco and Durres in Albania which are mapped as border cities in the global Mediterranean context Because of its intrinsically multidisciplinary nature this superb volume will be of particular interest to academics and social science researchers as well as policymakers and international agencies Natalia Ribas Mateos is a Marie Curie fellow at the Mediterranean Laboratory of Sociology Aix en Provence France Among her recent books are Una invitacin a las sociologa de las migraciones and El debate sobre la globalizacin

The Handbook of European Defence Policies and Armed Forces Hugo Meijer, Marco Wyss, 2018-06-22 The armed forces of Europe have undergone a dramatic transformation since the collapse of the Soviet Union The Handbook of European Defence Policies and Armed Forces provides the first comprehensive analysis of national security and defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities and military operations as well as the alliances and partnerships of European armed forces in response to the security challenges Europe has faced since the end of the cold war A truly cross European comparison of the evolution of national defence policies and armed forces remains a notable blind spot in the existing literature The Handbook of European Defence Policies and Armed Forces aims to fill this gap with fifty one contributions on European defence and international security from around the world The six parts focus on country based assessments of the evolution of the national defence policies of Europe s major medium and lesser powers since the end of the cold war the alliances and security partnerships developed by European states to cooperate in the provision of national security the security challenges faced by European states and their armed forces ranging from interstate through intra state and transnational the national security strategies and doctrines developed in response to these challenges the military capabilities and the underlying defence and technological industrial base brought to bear to support national strategies and doctrines and finally the national or multilateral military operations by European armed forces The contributions to The
