The Devotee And The Vision:

The Visions of Sri Ramakrishna Swami Yogeshananda, 2022-03-19 This book is a compilation of a number of transcendental super sensuous experiences of Sri Ramakrishna by Swami Yogeshananda This meticulous collection of extraordinary visions and experiences of Sri Ramakrishna from the most profound to the seemingly trivial is mainly drawn from Swami Saradananda's Sri Ramakrishna the Great Master and Mahendra Nath Gupta's The Gospel of Sri Ramakrishna The book with its unobtrusive and helpful commentary on the visions will be of immense help to both spiritual aspirants and the students of comparative religion

Singing Krishna A. Whitney Sanford, 2009-01-01 Singing Krishna introduces Param nand one of north India's greatest medieval poet saints whose poetry has been sung from the sixteenth century to the present in ritual service to the Hindu deity Krishna A Whitney Sanford examines how hearing Param nand's poetry in ritual context serves as a threshold for devotees between this world and Krishna's divine world To see Krishna is a primary goal of the devotee and Param nand deftly constructs a vision through words Sanford employs the dual strategies of interpreting Param nand's poems which sing the cycles of Krishna's activities and illustrating the importance of their ritual contexts This approach offers insight into the nature of the devotional experience that is not accessible by simply studying the poetry or rituals in isolation Sanford shows that the significance of Param nand's poetry lies not only in its beauty and historical importance but finally in its capacity to permit the devotee to see through the ephemeral world into Krishna's world

Redemptive Encounters Lawrence A. Babb, 1986 In this comparative study of three modern religious movements Lawrence A Babb argues that thematic continuities exist between traditional Hinduism and its widely divergent modern expressions

Empty Vision David McMahan, 2013-12-19 Yet another contribution to the RoutledgeCurzon Critical Studies in Buddhism series This study examines the roles of metaphor and especially visual metaphor in the construction of epistemic systems It is important and timely as it substantially develops the theme of vision in South Asian religions a subject which has so far been noticed in scholarly works but seldom analysed thematically The book also expands the current discussion of vision and its roles in constructing epistemic systems and cultural practice beyond its exclusively European and American focus The book develops the discussion of visual themes treated in Jacob Kinnard's Imaging Wisdom previously published in the series

Self-Surrender (prapatti) to God in Shrivaisnavism Srilata Raman, 2006 Filling the most glaring gap in Shrivaisnava scholarship this book deals with the history of interpretation of a theological concept of self surrender prapatti in late twelfth and thirteenth century religious texts of the Shrivaisnava community of South India This original study shows that medieval sectarian formation in its theological dimension is a fluid and ambivalent enterprise where conflict and differentiation are presaged on sharing whether of a common canon saint or rituals or two languages Tamil and Sanskrit or of a meta social arena such as the temple

The Routledge History of the Senses Andrew Kettler, Will Tullett, 2025-06-26 The Routledge History of the Senses presents readers with an overview of the field As well as pointing to directions for the future of the discipline it illustrates the extent to which the subject offers a considerable space for the exploration of diverse historical topics through the lens of sensory experience The handbook brings together essays and case studies from some of the leading academics on the history of the senses Together they not only chart topics and arguments in existing scholarship but introduce fresh methodologies for future analyses Specifically the chapters collectively show that the senses of the historical body often portray the intensity of the invasion of capital upon the functions of the mind throughout global history As a global history this work arrives at a time when many sensory historians are looking for a touchstone for moving beyond the often heavily Western frameworks that dominate the existing literature on the historical senses Not only will this book appeal to students and scholars of the history of senses visual studies art history food studies and many of the social sciences but individual chapters also offer useful reading material for a wide range of history modules and contemporary topics

Enchantment C. Stephen Jaeger, 2012-03-19 What is the force in art C Stephen Jaeger asks that can enter our consciousness inspire admiration or imitation and carry a reader or viewer from the world as it is to a world more sublime We have long recognized the power of individuals to lead or enchant by the force of personal charisma and indeed in his award winning Envy of Angels Jaeger himself brilliantly parsed the ability of charismatic teachers to shape the world of medieval learning In Enchantment he turns his attention to a sweeping and multifaceted exploration of the charisma not of individuals but of art For Jaeger the charisma of the visual arts literature and film functions by creating an exalted semblance of life a realm of beauty sublime emotions heroic motives and deeds godlike bodies and actions and superhuman abilities so as to dazzle the humbled spectator and lift him or her up into the place so represented Charismatic art makes us want to live in the higher world that it depicts to behave like its heroes and heroines and to think and act according to their values It temporarily weakens individual will and rational critical thought It brings us into a state of enchantment Ranging widely across periods and genres Enchantment investigates the charismatic effect of an ancient statue of Apollo on the poet Rilke of the painter Durer's self portrayal as a figure of Christ like magnificence of a numinous Odysseus washed ashore on Phaeacia and of the black and white projection of Fred Astaire dancing across the Depression era movie screen From the tattoos on the face of a Maori tribesman to the haunting visage of Charlotte Rampling in a film by Woody Allen Jaeger's extraordinary book explores the dichotomies of reality and illusion life and art that are fundamental to both cultic and aesthetic experience

Imagining the Passion in a Multiconfessional Castile Cynthia Robinson, 2013 An interdisciplinary reassessment of the creation and reception of religious imagery and of its place in the devotional practices of Castilian Christians situated against the broader panorama of Spanish culture in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries Provided by publisher Lumen Kristen Collins, Nancy K. Turner, 2024-09-17 Sumptuously illustrated with dazzling objects this publication explores the ways art and science worked hand in hand in the Middle Ages and Renaissance Through the manipulation of materials such as gold crystal and glass medieval artists created dazzling light filled environments evoking in the everyday world the layered realms of the divine While contemporary society separates science and spirituality the medieval world harnessed the science of light to better perceive and understand the sacred From 800 to 1600 the study of astronomy geometry and optics emerged as a framework that was utilized by theologians and artists to comprehend both the sacred realm and the natural world Through essays written by contributors from the fields of art history the history of science and neuroscience and with more than two hundred illustrations including glimmering golden reliquaries illuminated manuscripts rock crystal vessels astronomical instruments and more Lumen cuts across religious political and geographic boundaries to reveal the ways medieval Christian Jewish and Islamic artists theologians and thinkers studied light To convey the sense of wonder created by moving light on precious materials a number of contemporary artworks are placed in dialogue with historic objects The Bhagavadgita Angelika Malinar, 2007-12-06 The Bhagavadgita is one of the most renowned texts of Hinduism because it contains discussions of important issues such as liberation and the nature of action as well as the revelation of the Krishna as the highest god and creator of the universe It is included in the ancient Indian Mahabharata epic at one of its most dramatic moments that is when the final battle is about to begin In contrast to many other studies this book deals with the relationship between the Bhagavadgita and its epic contexts On the basis of a thorough analysis of the text Angelika Malinar argues that its theology delineates not only new philosophical concepts and religious practices but also addresses the problem of righteous kingship and appropriate use of power Malinar concludes by considering the Bhagavadgita's historical and cultural contexts and those features of the text that became paradigmatic in later Hindu religious traditions
