vast cache of statistics have provided fans and researchers a gold mine of narrative and data since the late 19th century. Many books have been written about Major League Baseball's most famous games. This one takes a different approach, focusing on MLB's most historically significant games. Some will be familiar to baseball scholars such as the October afternoon in 1961 when Roger Maris eclipsed Babe Ruth's single season home run record or the compelling sixth game of the 1975 World Series. Other fascinating games are less well known: the day at the Polo Grounds in 1921 when a fan named Reuben Berman filed a lawsuit against the New York Giants winning fans the right to keep balls hit into the stands; the first televised broadcast of an MLB game in 1939; opening night of the Houston Astrodome in 1965 when spectators no longer had to be taken out to the ballgame or the spectatorless April 2015 Orioles White Sox game played in an empty stadium in the wake of the Baltimore riots. Each game is listed in chronological order with detailed historical background and a box score.

The National Pastime, Summer 2014 Issue Cecilia Tan, ed., This issue of The National Pastime is dedicated to baseball in Houston since 1961. Each annual issue of TNP has centered on the geographic area of SABR's national convention summer site. In 2014 the convention took place in Houston, Texas. The local chapter named for former Houston Astro Larry Dierker produced a coffee table book cover HOUSTON BASEBALL up to 1961 so this issue of The National Pastime focuses on the space age and the arrival of Major League Baseball in the region. So here we have a special issue centered almost entirely on the Houston Astros' Colt 45s and their two influential and iconic homes: short-lived Colt Stadium and the Astrodome. The Houston MLB franchise has amassed more than its share of history in the five-plus decades since their launch. A well-worn adage is everything is bigger in Texas and that certainly applies to the role of the Astrodome in pop culture and to the outsize personality of team owner Roy Hofheinz who was one part P. T. Barnum, two parts George Steinbrenner, and all Texan. If you weren't able to attend the convention in Houston, please enjoy reading this issue of The National Pastime as your virtual trip to Space City in the Lone Star State will employ seventeen SABR members as your tour guides.
