The Argosy Mrs. Henry Wood, Charles William Wood, 1882 A magazine of tales travels essays and poems Sex, Sadism, Spain, and Cinema Nicholas G. Schlegel, 2015-06-11 From 1968 to 1977 Spain experienced a boom in horror movie production under a restrictive economic system established by the country's dictator Francisco Franco Despite hindrance from the Catholic Church and Spanish government which rigidly controlled motion picture content hundreds of horror films were produced during this ten year period This statistic is even more remarkable when compared with the output of studios and production companies in the United States and elsewhere at the same time What accounts for the staggering number of films and what does it say about Spain during this period In Sex Sadism Spain and Cinema The Spanish Horror Film Nicholas G Schlegel looks at movies produced distributed and exhibited under the crumbling dictatorship of General Franco The production and content of these films the author suggests can lead to a better understanding of the political social and cultural conditions during a contentious period in Spain's history The author addresses the complex factors that led to the official sanctioning of horror films which had previously been banned and how they differed from other popular genres that were approved and subsidized by the government In addition to discussing the financing and exhibiting of these productions the author examines the tropes conventions iconography and thematic treatments of the films Schlegel also analyzes how these movies were received by audiences and critics both in Spain and abroad Finally he looks at the circumstances that led to the rapid decline of such films in the late 1970s and early 1980s By examining how horror movies thrived in Spain during this decade this book addresses a sorely neglected gap in film scholarship and also complements existing literature on Spanish national cinema Sex Sadism Spain and Cinema will appeal to fans of horror films as well as scholars of film history European history genre studies and cultural studies

American International Pictures Rob Craig,2019-03-05 American International Pictures was in many ways the missing link between big budget Hollywood studios poverty row B movie factories and low rent exploitation movie distributors AIP first targeted teen audiences with science fiction horror and fantasy but soon grew to encompass many genres and demographics at times it was indistinguishable from many of the major studios From Abby to Zontar this filmography lists more than 800 feature films television series and TV specials by AIP and its partners and subsidiaries Special attention is given to American International Television the TV arm of AIP and an appendix lists the complete AITV catalog The author also discusses films produced by founders James H Nicholson and Samuel Z Arkoff after they left the company

A Companion to the Horror Film Harry M. Benshoff,2017-01-17 This cutting edge collection features original essays by eminent scholars on one of cinema s most dynamic and enduringly popular genres covering everything from the history of horror movies to the latest critical approaches Contributors include many of the finest academics working in the field as well as exciting younger scholars Varied and comprehensive coverage from the history of horror to broader issues of censorship gender and sexuality Covers both English language and non English horror film traditions Key topics include horror film aesthetics theoretical approaches distribution art house cinema ethnographic surrealism and horror s relation to documentary film practice A thorough treatment of this dynamic film genre suited to scholars and enthusiasts alike

The Monstrous-Feminine Barbara Creed,2015-09-04 In almost all critical writings on the horror film woman is conceptualised only as victim In The Monstrous Feminine Barbara Creed challenges this patriarchal view by arguing that the prototype of all definitions of the monstrous is the female reproductive body With close reference to a number of classic horror films including the Alien trilogy T

The House that Hated Men Arthur Wyllie,2013-10-01 This is the story of an old woman who lived in a Victorian house in Southton Massachusetts She was killed by the townspeople during the frenzy of the Salem witch trials Before she died she put a curse on the land Any men born and as yet unborn who sets foot on the property risks a horrible death Sharon Michaels and Mark Miller are investigating an accidental death on the property and discover the curse Little do they know that the curse will become far more personal than they ever imagined

Monsters in the Closet Harry M. Benshoff,1997-11-15 Monster in the Closet is a history of the horror film that explores the genre s relationship to the social and cultural history of homosexuality in America Drawing on a wide variety of films and primary source materials including censorship files critical reviews promotional materials fanzines men s magazines and popular news weeklies the book examines the historical figure of the movie monster in relation to various medical psychological religious and social models of homosexuality While recent work within gay and lesbian studies has explored how the genetic tropes of the horror film intersect with popular culture's understanding of queerness this is the first book to examine how the concept of the monster queer has evolved from era to era From the gay and lesbian sensibilities encoded into the form and content of the classical Hollywood horror film to recent films which play upon AIDS related fears Monster in the Closet examines how the horror film started and continues to demonize or quite literally monsterize queer sexuality and what the pleasures and costs of such representations might be both for individual spectators and culture at large Ghost Cat and Other Spooky Tales James Preller, 2007-07 Presents a collection of scary tales including a cat that lurks around every corner even though it is dead a horrible monster hiding in the closet and an imaginary friend that does bad things
