

Benefits of humanities education

1. Social awareness

Amid a world of globalization and changing philosophies, a humanities education can offer an opportunity for students to craft solutions to pressing problems, including education and social reform.

2. Critical thinking

Humanities classes stress the importance of understanding the methodology, feasibility and logic behind each solution aimed at addressing global issues.

3. Communication

Public speaking and written assignments are often a point of emphasis in humanities classes, providing an opportunity for students to gain transferrable skills to take to the workforce.

4. Foreign language skills

Rapid urbanization and increasing geopolitical tensions in the 21st century have also elevated the need to learn and retain foreign language skills — an aspect of humanities education.

The Humanities:

The Value of the Humanities Helen Small, 2013-10-04 The Value of the Humanities provides a critical account of the principal arguments used to defend the value of the Humanities The claims considered are that the Humanities study the meaning making practices of culture and bring to their work a distinctive understanding of what constitutes knowledge and understanding that though useful to society in many ways they remain laudably at odds with or at a remove from instrumental use value that they contribute to human happiness that they are a force for democracy and that they are a good in themselves to be valued for their own sake Engaging closely with contemporary literary and philosophical work in the field from the UK and US Helen Small distinguishes between arguments that retain strong Victorian roots Mill on happiness Arnold on use value and those that have developed or been substantially altered since Unlike many works in this field The Value of the Humanities is not a polemic or a manifesto Its purpose is to explore the grounds for each argument and to test its validity for the present day Tough minded alert to changing historical conditions for argument and changing styles of rhetoric it promises to sharpen the terms of the public debate The Humanities in the World Rens Bod, Stefan Collini, Onora O'Neill, 2020-05-29 Three essays highlight the worldliness of the humanities in this short book edited by Anders Engberg Pedersen a Danish Professor of Comparative Literature We need a better account of what the humanities are what humanist scholars do and how they do it what is done with the knowledge they produce and how this knowledge seeps into society and other institutions and sciences through multiple channels to shape our common world Latour and the Humanities Rita Felski, Stephen Muecke, 2020-09-01 How does the work of influential theorist Bruno Latour offer a fresh angle on the practices and purposes of the humanities In recent years defenses of the humanities have tended to argue along predictable lines the humanities foster empathy the humanities encourage critical thinking the humanities offer a counterweight to the cold calculations of the natural and social sciences The essays in Latour and the Humanities take a different approach Exploring the relevance of theorist Bruno Latour s work they argue for attachments and entanglements between the humanities and the sciences while looking closely at the interests institutions and intellectual projects that shape the humanities within and beyond the university The collection which is written by a group of highly distinguished scholars from around the world is divided into two sections In the first part authors engage in depth with Latour s work while also rethinking the ties between the humanities and the sciences Essays argue for greater attention to the nonhuman world the urgency of climate change and more nuanced views of universities as institutions The second half of the volume contains essays that reflect on Latour s influence on the practices of specific disciplines including art the digital humanities film studies and political theory Inspiring conversation about the relevance of actor network theory for research and teaching in the humanities Latour and the Humanities offers a substantial introduction to Latour s work while discussing the humanities without falling back on the genres of either the sermon or the jeremiad This volume will be of interest to all those searching for fresh perspectives on the value and importance of humanistic disciplines and thought Contributors David J Alworth Anders Blok Claudia Breger Dipesh Chakrabarty Yves Citton Steven Connor Gerard de Vries Simon During Rita Felski Francis Halsall Graham Harman Antoine Hennion Casper Bruun Jensen Bruno Latour Heather Love Patrice Maniglier Stephen Muecke Barbara Herrnstein Smith Nigel Thrift Michael Witmore Law and the Humanities Austin Sarat, Matthew Anderson, Cathrine O.
