Skills Of Negotiating:

Negotiation Basics Ralph A. Johnson, 1992-12-18 It is a very practical book aiming to describe various ways of negotiating. The author's use of a conversational style makes for easy reading. A useful and light book which serves as an introduction to the area. Counselling at Work. Although the book's format makes it of particular interest to teachers thinking about a possible text to assign for a semester length general course in negotiation, the average reader may also enjoy this blend of theoretical and practical perspectives. Negotiation Journal How does negotiation work? What are the options and procedures for a thorough negotiation? What problems and deficiencies does one encounter in negotiation? How can skill building be integrated for a successful negotiation? To answer these and other questions Negotiation Basics presents both theoretical and practical perspectives that enable readers to develop the skills necessary for individual and group negotiating situations. Utilizing a unique theory into practice technique, each chapter introduces and discusses an essential negotiating concept, concepts that connect to a related skill and integrates exercises throughout the chapters. Thus each chapter provides readers with the opportunity to practice the newly acquired skills. Topics examined include steps necessary for goal building, role of information in negotiations, hidden and incidental costs, popular strategies, role of the agent and reasons why negotiations fail. This unique and illuminating volume is a welcome addition for business and management courses, service organizations, labor studies programs, education and communication departments, and conflict resolution programs. W. P. Scott, 1981 Negotiating and Influencing Skills Brad McRae, 1997-10-15 Based on the theoretical approach to cooperative negotiating skills developed at the Harvard Project on Negotiation, this book presents a two-step process towards mastery of negotiating and influencing skills. Step one involves the development of skills by means of interactive exercises, and step two, the application of these negotiating skills, which have been carefully constructed to help the reader develop and broaden his or her negotiation style and become more flexible and fluid in approach. Negotiating and Influencing Skills addresses how to negotiate with difficult people and in difficult situations and covers essential skills such as self control, empathy, and assertion in the negotiating process. Negotiation Skills In A Week Peter Fleming,2012-03-23 Effective negotiation skills just got easier There was a time not that long ago when negotiation was seen in the main as the province of industrial relations folk and car sales advisers But no longer Repeated financial crises have squeezed profit margins and in some markets discouraged buyers from making marginal purchases or continuing habitual expenditure Managers have found themselves in the frontline of the expectation to achieve better value for money and the starting point for this is to shop around and explore the offers made by new suppliers and or to negotiate better deals with existing suppliers Even if your job doesn t involve negotiation then you might still be an active negotiator when replacing your car moving house or even selling last season s wardrobe The truth is that being a good negotiator has become a life skill enabling those who are good at it not just to save money but also to upgrade their computer television or lawnmower with little or no increase in outgoings and enhancing their reputation in the process Becoming an effective negotiator is certainly within the scope of the majority of people At its simplest it involves thinking out what you want planning how you d like to get it and developing your powers of persuasion to convince other people that you are simply being reasonable This book will help you to plan to become a better negotiator through being better prepared for meetings planning clear and realistic objectives for a negotiation maintaining concentration and making logical proposals that create agreement in the other party Sunday Creating the right environment Monday Researching your objectives Tuesday People and places Wednesday Breaking the ice Thursday The agenda Friday Concluding Saturday Learning from your experiences
