Skinned By Light:

The Psychology of Skin Bleaching Christopher A.D. Charles, 2025-04-29 This book examines the controversial global phenomenon of skin bleaching. It uses a social psychological approach to explain the motivations, behavior, and medical consequences of the practice, considering why some people use products to lighten their complexion. Written by a world leading expert in skin bleaching, the book takes a nuanced approach to understanding skin bleaching that looks further than the standard claims of low self-esteem as a form of self-hatred. It goes beyond looking at individual personality traits to consider the cultural norms, values, shared social meanings, and practices about race and skin color, showing how shared meanings from social representation guide people's behavior in their culture. The book draws predominantly on research from Jamaica but considers how skin bleaching is practised in different cultural contexts across the Americas, Europe, Asia, and Africa. Chapters consider the history of race and skin color, how skin color and race are portrayed in popular culture, how skin color and race form two of some people's social identities, and how skin bleaching has become an established social practice in many settings. It also looks at the consequences of skin bleaching and suggests policy responses that could help curb the practice. The Psychology of Skin Bleaching will be highly relevant reading for students and scholars in the fields of psychology, Black and Caribbean studies, sociology, anthropology, cultural studies, and health. It will also be of interest to professionals including psychiatrists and public health practitioners and anyone interested in better understanding the psychological and bodily expressions of racialized discrimination and oppression.

Skin Deep Cedric Herring, 2004 Shattering the myth of the colorblind society, this collection of essays is a revealing examination of the ways skin tone inequality operates in America. Shades of Difference Evelyn Glenn, 2009-01-23 Shades of Difference examines the significance of skin color in different societies around the world and its effects on relations between and within racial groups.

Making Up the Difference Erynn Masi de Casanova, 2011-06-01 Globalization and economic restructuring have decimated formal jobs in developing countries, pushing many women into informal employment such as direct selling of cosmetics, perfume, and other personal care products as a way to make up the difference between household income and expenses. In Ecuador, with its persistent economic crisis and few opportunities for financially and personally rewarding work, women increasingly choose direct selling as a way to earn income by activating their social networks. While few women earn the cars and trips that are iconic prizes in the direct selling organization, many use direct selling as part of a set of household survival strategies. In this first in-depth study of a cosmetics direct selling organization in Latin America, Erynn Masi de Casanova explores women's identities as workers, including their juggling of paid work and domestic responsibilities, their ideas about professional appearance, and their strategies for collecting money from customers. Focusing on women who work for the country's leading direct selling organization, she offers fascinating portraits of the everyday lives of women selling personal care products in Ecuador's largest city, Guayaquil. Addressing gender relations, including a look at men's direct and indirect involvement the importance of image and the social and economic context of direct selling Casanova challenges assumptions that this kind of flexible employment resolves women s work home conflicts and offers an important new perspective on women s work in developing countries Calling of the Ais Cynthia Young,2022-11-03 When stylish and stunning Jemma discovers century old Ais Indian artifacts on her oceanfront Florida property she is compelled to know why Incredibly she finds herself traveling back in time over three hundred years through a tragic shipwrecked voyage back to her property and back to the savage Ais Indians The handsome chief and his exotic princess are overwhelmed by this unexpected blonde fair skinned gift Jemma is forced to live among them What starts as a heathen tribal ritual binding the three evolves into an erotic sexual love triangle until history changes everything Racialized Politics of Desire in Personal Ads Neal A. Lester, Maureen Daly Goggin,2007-01-01 The essays in Racialized Politics of Desire in Personal Ads explore complex intersections among the social categories of race gender and sexuality within personal ads revealing a dynamic tapestry of power relations and hierarchies The ephemeral nature of personal ads their anonymity the space limitations and the linguistic encoding characteristic of the genre make it an interesting and important opportunity to witness the performative nature of identity politics Houston Bound Tyina L. Steptoe,2015-11-03 Beginning after World War I Houston was transformed from a black and white frontier town into one of the most ethnically and racially diverse urban areas in the United States Houston Bound draws on social and cultural history to show how despite Anglo attempts to fix racial categories through Jim Crow laws converging migrations particularly those of Mexicans and Creoles complicated ideas of blackness and whiteness and introduced different understandings about race This migration history also uses music and sound to examine these racial complexities tracing the emergence of Houston s blues and jazz scenes in the 1920s as well as the hybrid forms of these genres that arose when migrants forged shared social space and carved out new communities and politics This interdisciplinary book provides both an innovative historiography about migration and immigration in the twentieth century and a critical examination of a city located in the former Confederacy The Power of Looks Bonnie Berry,2016-02-24 There is a saying that beauty is in the eye of the beholder implying that beauty is subjective But can it be said that better looking people have more social power This book provides a fascinating insight into the social stratification of people based on looks the artificial placement of people into greater and lesser power strata based on physical appearance The author analyzes different aspects of physical appearance such as faces breasts eye shapes height and weight as they are related to social power and inequality For example tall people are often associated with power with tall people being seen publicly as more capable and thus more deserving of power than shorter people The author moreover assesses how people s physical appearance affects their chances of marriage employment education and other social and economic opportunities The book contributes to and differentiates itself from current literature by emphasizing sociological theory including constructionism and critical theory and research to understand the phenomenon of social aesthetics a term coined by the author to refer to the social reaction to physical appearance The Poultry Item ,1928 We Need to Talk About Antisemitism Rabbi Diana Fersko,2023-08-29 A millennial rabbi explores why we re reluctant to discuss antisemitism and empowers us to fight against it Antisemitism is on the rise in America in cities and rural areas in red states and blue states and in guises both subtle and terrifyingly overt Rabbi Diana Fersko is used to having difficult conversations with members of her congregation about the issues they face from the threat of violence to microaggressions and identity denial In We Need to Talk About Antisemitism she gives all of us the ultimate guide to modern antisemitism in its many forms Exploring topics like vile myths about Jewish people and the intersection of antisemitism with other forms of discrimination We Need to Talk About Antisemitism gives readers the tools they need to understand the state of antisemitism today Fersko shows Jews and non Jews alike how to speak up and come together spreading a message of solidarity and hope This is a timely read for anyone passionate about fighting for social justice Pediatric Dermatology DDX Deck E-Book William L Weston,Joseph G.
