Monographic Series Library of Congress, The Sleeping Beauty Charles Perrault,2021-02-26 Once lived a king and a queen whose only dream was to finally have a child Their dream came true and the queen gave birth to a breathtaking beauty They invited all of the fairies in the land but forgot about one She was so furious that she cursed the poor little girl She was going to prick her hand with a spindle and die of it Fortunately one of the good godmothers managed to lessen the curse If such thing happened the girl was not going to die She was just going to sleep for a 100 years The king did everything he could to get rid of every spindle and spinning wheel But the curse was stronger than that And when the girl turned sixteen she pricked her hand and fell asleep Who disenchanted the girl and what followed after that Find out in The Sleeping Beauty Charles Perrault 1628 1703 was a French author He is known for being a pioneer of the fairy tale genre deriving his stories from traditional folk tales His most famous stories include Puss in Boots Little Red Riding Hood Sleeping Beauty and Cinderella His stories have been adapted to stage and screen countless times most notably by Disney with classic animated films like Sleeping Beauty and Cinderella His story Puss in Boots was the basis for the character from the animated films Shrek 2 and Puss in Boots

The Sleeping Beauty in the Wood Charles Perrault, 2024-01-25 There were formerly a King and a Queen who were so sorry that they had no children so sorry that it cannot be expressed They went to all the waters in the world vows pilgrimages all ways were tried and all to no purpose At last however the Queen proved with child and was brought to bed of a daughter There was a very fine christening and the Princess had for her godmothers all the Fairies they could find in the whole kingdom they found seven that every one of them might give her a gift as was the custom of Fairies in those days and that by this means the Princess might have all the perfections imaginable After the ceremonies of the christening were over all the company returned to the King s palace where was prepared a great feast for the Fairies There was placed before every one of them a magnificent cover with a case of massive gold wherein were a spoon knife and fork all of pure gold set with diamonds and rubies But as they were all sitting down at table they saw come into the hall a very old Fairy whom they had not invited because it was above fifty years since she had been out of a certain tower and she was believed to be either dead or enchanted The King ordered her a cover but could not furnish her with a case of gold as the others because they had seven only made for the seven Fairies
