Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy Leonard, 2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years Nonetheless there has been little attempt to catalog this material This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 In doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature The volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American Dominican American and Nuyorican women authors These citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index Short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies Thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author's shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works

The Art of College Teaching Marilyn Kallet, April L. Morgan, 2005 Teachers everywhere are confronted with a problem Whether at a small liberal arts college major research university or some other institute of learning instructors are continually challenged to create smart effective pedagogical techniques in order to be efficient in the classroom The Art of College Teaching is a first twenty eight insider essays about this process by distinguished and highly acclaimed teachers of note from across the curriculum including eleven Carnegie national award winners grouped here to uncover common values approaches and even debates among today's educators Rather than a rulebook for good teaching Professors Marilyn Kallet and April Morgan have assembled a wide variety of practitioner lore what successful teachers have learned to do well and what they're still seeking to master From the embarrassing to the inspirational contributors take us inside their classrooms to explain the light bulb moments that form the bases of their teaching philosophies making this collection reader friendly often humorous and very real Contributors take up a broad range of subjects setting boundaries with students teaching as performance the pros and cons of lecture versus active learning gaining students respect and keeping it creativity in the classroom encouraging diversity and many others The interdisciplinary approach allows for a stimulating mix of voices and kinds of expertise from takes on teaching by Nobel Prize Laureate James Buchanan to coaching strategies from champion ice skating instructor Robert Unger Theories about the right way to teach abound but like any art teaching isn't easily defined by guidelines or prevailing wisdom A narrative experiential approach to one of our most rewarding and demanding disciplines The Art of College Teaching is a book to be of use It is a handbook of ideas that will empower new teachers and refresh those who have been in the trenches for years

On Burning Ground Sandra Gilbert, 2021-08-02 The highly esteemed literary critic and poet Sandra M Gilbert is best known for her feminist literary collaborations with Susan Gubar with whom she coauthored The Madwoman in the Attic The Woman Writer and The Nineteenth Century Literary Imagination as well as the three volume No Man's Land The Place of the Woman Writer in the Twentieth Century The essays assembled in On Burning Ground display Gilbert's astonishing range and explore poetics personal identity feminism and modern and contemporary literature Among the pieces gathered here are essays on D H Lawrence Robert Lowell Sylvia Plath and Louise Glück as well as reviews and previously unpublished articles Sandra M Gilbert is Distinguished Professor of English Emerita at the University of California Davis She is the recipient of Guggenheim Rockefeller NEH and Soros Foundation fellowships and is the author of seven collections of poetry including Kissing the Bread New and Selected Poems 1969 1999 and most recently Belongings Praise for Sandra M

Gilbert Sandra Gilbert's poems are beautifully situated at the intersection of craft and feeling. Belongings is a stellar collection by a virtuoso with heart. Billy Collins brilliantly combines literary and cultural criticism with the intimacy of memoir. Joyce Carol Oates: An enduring contribution to the literature of grief. New York Times Book Review. Poets on Poetry collects critical works by contemporary poets gathering together the articles, interviews, and book reviews by which they have articulated the poetics of a new generation.

Kissing the Mango Tree Carmen Socorro Rivera, 2002-01-01. Pioneering novelist and short story writer Nicholasa Mohr broke onto the literary scene of ethnic autobiography in the early 1970s, but it took another decade for other Puerto Rican women writers in the United States to follow the path that she cut. From the late 1970s on, a dynamic group of these writers have expanded the landscape of American literature. Kissing the Mango Tree is the first and only book to examine the works of the most popular Puerto Rican women writers from the perspective of feminist literary criticism. Rivera reconstructs the ethno-feminist aesthetic of Judith Ortiz Cofer, Sandra Mar a Esteves, Nicholasa Mohr, Aurora Levins Morales, Rosario Morales, Esmeralda Santiago, and Luz Mar a Umpierre Herrera. In separate chapters dedicated to each of these writers, the author locates their works within the framework of feminist theory and literature, seeing them as women with macho asserting their creative powers to record their own versions of their memories, to own their own bodies. They transform the way we look at the process of growing up and becoming a woman, at the relationship with our mothers and our daughters, at the fluidity of our lives, at our notions of nationhood. This groundbreaking study is accompanied by a complete bibliography of the six writers' works and secondary sources of feminist, Latino, and ethno-poetic criticism and theory.

Eleven More American Women Poets in the 21st Century Claudia Rankine, Lisa Sewell, 2012-01-01. A fine and selective anthology that's also a critical introduction to some of the most provocative and some of the most original poetry out there. Stephanie Burt, author of Don't Read Poetry: A Book About How to Read Poems. The American Poets in the 21st Century series continues with another anthology focused on female poets. Like the earlier books, this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time, as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work. This unique organization makes these books invaluable teaching tools. Broadening the lens through which we look at contemporary poetry, this new volume extends its geographical net by including Caribbean and Canadian poets. Representing three generations of women writers, among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Karla Kelsey on Mary Jo Bang's modes of artifice, Christine Hume on Carla Harryman's kinds of listening, Dawn Lundy Martin on M. NourbeSe Phillip for whom English is a foreign anguish, and Sina Queyras on Lisa Robertson's confoundingly beautiful surfaces. In addition, a companion website presents audio of each poet's work.

Word Jocelyn Burrell, 2004. A stunning array of women writers from the U.S. and abroad examine the intimate and politically charged act of writing.
