When Marilyn Met the Queen Michelle Morgan,2022-05-03 In July 1956 Marilyn Monroe arrived in London on honeymoon with her husband Arthur Miller to make The Prince and the Showgirl with Sir Laurence Olivier It was meant to be a happy time I am dying to walk bare headed in the rain I think England sounds adorable Marilyn Monroe Marilyn would work during the day at Pinewood Studios in Iver Heath while Arthur would write Then in the evening the couple would be able to relax together in their private English country cottage But the cottage was a mansion in Englefield Green and Marilyn used to living in tiny hotel rooms and apartments felt herself being watched She was by several of owner Lord Drogheda s servants who were selling stories to the papers And when filming began all did not go as hoped Over time Marilyn grew to hate Olivier the feeling was mutual Marilyn found herself a curiosity for the frequently hostile British press She took solace in bike rides in Windsor Great Park in small acts of kindness from members of the public and in a growing fascination with Queen Elizabeth whom she longed to meet and eventually did

The Life of the Buddha - Part One and Part Two REV. SIRIDHAMMA, This short introduction of the Life of the Buddha rendered as Part I of a two volume work was compiled by the Rev Siri Dhamma when he was a novice monk in the Brickfields Buddhist Temple After the script had been completed the Venerable H Guna ratna and Mr Lim Eng Chuan went through the details and each gave suggestions and ideas which had since then been incorporated and used to complete this valuable booklet This publication meets a long felt need for a suitable text book for Lower Secondary School standards that deals particularly with the period of earthly existence of the Buddha Although the account of the Life in the book is set down very briefly I believe that this presentation offers a good deal of material for the study of our Great Master s Life Teachers of the Dhamma classes in the various Buddhist Sunday Schools and even other religious institutions may elaborate on certain lessons to their satisfaction in their classes when this booklet is used as a textbook Since the material dealt with is very fundamental and comprises the basic knowledge desired of a junior beginning the study of Buddhism it is recommended that teacher make sure the students have grasped the principles involved in each topic or lessons by getting the class to answer questions set down at the end of every chapter The omission of legend and the absence of accounts of miracles from the compilation is intended to indicate that the contribution of the Buddha to world Happiness and His Supreme Enlightenment when he was born a man had successfully bridged the gap between man and divinity is more than enough for anyone who seeks the Truth to appreciate and accept the Method of the Great Master without having to call on miracles and legends to highlight His life

As a compensation for the many pages of words and words there are several good illustrations pertaining to the Life of the Buddha I believe our young readers will be pleased with these illustrations as they have been specially selected for the book having relevant bearing on the period the custom as well as the dignity of the occasion for each topic represented Many of the illustrations are by courtesy of the Buddhist Information Centre Sri Lanka Thanks are due to the Buddhist Missionary Society for undertaking the publication of the two volumes and for meeting the cost of printing The Broken Rune Staff
