Scott W. Alexander

The I Of The Sermon Autobiography In The Pulpit Fortress Resources For Preaching:

The "I" of the Sermon Richard L. Thulin, 2004-11-22 The issues are clear If one preaches Christ how does one avoid preaching oneself How do you avoid the fall into Narcissus pond What allows one's humility to show How much does one dare reveal about oneself Thulin handles these questions with sensitivity and skill using his own and others sermons for examples and critique He carefully and incisively describes four types of personal story available to preachers the features and functions of each and the degree of the preacher's self disclosure allowed by each Most of his book deals with the personal story as self portrayal that type being the most comprehensive form of first person narrative An appendix includes three sermons one each by Edmund Steimle Martin Luther King Jr and John Vannorsdall often used to disclose the intent of Thulin's I in this book A Preach Well Church Josh Taylor, 2023-04-12 Thirty eight percent of pastors have given serious thought to leaving full time ministry in the last year Between the COVID 19 pandemic and the unpredictable never done work of the ministry is it any wonder that many pastors have contemplated resigning Add to this church members unrealistic expectations and a knack for criticism and we see the toll this has taken on pastors and in one area in particular preaching Empty preachers are filling pulpits Is there anything church members can do to help their pastors with burnout and the essential stress of preaching week in week out After extensive research on the subject ninety seven pastors were asked What can your church members do to help you preach well Each chapter in this book is a commitment a clear concrete action developed from the study that church members can take to help their pastors preach well Each chapter also includes a section entitled A Word to Pastors that offers encouragement to those in ministry to help reduce their stress and become better preachers The "I" of the Sermon Richard L. Thulin, 1989 Richard Thulin focuses on four types of personal story illustration reminiscence confession and self portrayal He describes the essential elements of each type and demonstrates how each can proclaim Christ place hearers under the judgment and grace of God be integrated parts of the sermon in which they appear and accurately express the biblical text The I of the Sermon contributes to a general understanding of narrative preaching and suggests ways by which the tellers of personal story can avoid narcissism privatism and the isolated tale Evaluations of actual sermon texts and guidelines for responsible use of personal story are included From publisher's description The Living Church , 1968 Preaching is Believing Ronald J. Allen, 2002-01-01 In Preaching Is Believing Allen calls for preachers to help congregations cultivate a systematic approach to Christian faith and life by bringing systematic theology directly into the pulpit The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching Kenyatta R. Gilbert, 2011-04-01 The Journey and Promise of African American Preaching is a constructive effort to examine the historical contributions of African American preaching the challenges it faces today and how it might become a renewed source of healing and strength for at risk communities and churches from publisher description The Relational Pulpit Scott W. Alexander, 1993 Includes personal profiles methods for effective sermon writing and suggestions for improving the speaker audience connection Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company,1982 Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston,2021-05-25 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit Preaching and the Other Ronald J. Allen,2008-11-01 Preaching and the Other introduces the reader to six major themes characteristic of the postmodern era that are important for preaching and explains their implications Themes discussed include perception as interpretation deconstruction otherness transgression pluralism and the importance of apologetics
