

An aerial photograph of a beach at sunset or sunrise. The ocean waves are breaking onto the shore, creating white foam. The sand is a warm, golden-brown color. The sky is not visible, but the lighting suggests a low sun. The text is overlaid on the image in a dark, semi-transparent box.

The national park is the best idea America ever had.

The Idea of America Gordon S. Wood, 2011 Because the U S began as an idea Pulitzer Prize winning historian Gordon S Wood believes that the American Revolution is the most important event in our history bar none American identity is not based on any universally shared heritage so we have had to return to our nation s founding to understand who we are Wood explores the ideological origins of the revolution s attempts to forge an American democracy and traces the origins of American exceptionalism What may simply seem like audacity now was considered radical in the 18th century Today there exists what Wood calls a terrifying gap between the founders and us such that it requires almost an act of imagination to fully recapture their era Because we now take our democracy for granted it is nearly impossible for us to appreciate how deeply the founders feared their grand experiment in liberty could evolve into monarchy or dissolve into mob rule Gracefully written and filled with insight The Idea of America helps us to
