The Image Of London Views By Travellers And Emigres 1550 19:

Printed Images in Early Modern Britain Michael Hunter, 2016-12-05 Printed images were ubiquitous in early modern Britain and they often convey powerful messages which are all the more important for having circulated widely at the time Yet by comparison with printed texts these images have been neglected particularly by historians to whom they ought to be of the greatest interest This volume helps remedy this state of affairs Complementing the online digital library of British Printed Images to 1700 www.bpi1700.org.uk it offers a series of essays which exemplify the many ways in which such visual material can throw light on the history of the period Ranging from religion to politics polemic to satire natural science to consumer culture the collection explores how printed images need to be read in terms of the visual syntax understood by contemporaries their full meaning often only becoming clear when they are located in the context in which they were produced and deployed The result is not only to illustrate the sheer richness of material of this kind but also to underline the importance of the messages which it conveys which often come across more strongly in visual form than through textual commentaries With contributions from many leading exponents of the cultural history of early modern Britain including experts on religion politics science and art the book's appeal will be equally wide demonstrating how every facet of British culture in the period can be illuminated through the study of printed images

The Intellectuals and the Masses John Carey, 2012-12-20 Professor John Carey shows how early twentieth century intellectuals imagined the masses as semi human swarms drugged by popular newspapers and cinema and ripe for extermination Exposing the revulsion from common humanity in George Bernard Shaw Ezra Pound D H Lawrence E M Forster Virginia Woolf H G Wells Aldous Huxley W B Yeats and other canonized writers he relates this to the cult of the Nietzschean Superman which found its ultimate exponent in Hitler Carey's assault on the founders of modern culture caused consternation throughout the artistic and academic establishments when it was first published in 1992

Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century Paintings Richard R. Brettell, Paul Hayes Tucker, Natalie Henderson Lee, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2009 Robert Lehman 1891 1969 one of the foremost art collectors of his generation embraced the work of both traditional and modern masters This volume catalogues 130 nineteenth and twentieth century paintings that are now part of the Robert Lehman Collection at The Metropolitan Museum of Art The majority of the works are by artists based in France but there are also examples from the United States Latin America and India reflecting Lehman's global interests The catalogue opens with outstanding paintings by Ingres Th odore Rousseau and Corot among other early nineteenth century artists They are joined by an exemplary selection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist works by Degas Renoir Sisley Pissarro Seurat Signac Van Gogh C zanne and Gauguin Twentieth century masters represented here include Bonnard Matisse Rouault Dal and Balthus There are also newly researched modern works by Vicente do Rego Monteiro Kees van Dongen Dietz Edzard and D G Kulkarni dizi Robert Lehman's cultivated taste for nineteenth century French academic practitioners and his intuitive eye for emerging young artists of his
