The Incredible Brazilian The Native:

The Incredible Brazilian Zulfikar Ghose, 1983-01-01 A fourteen year old boy growing up in seventeenth century Brazil embarks on a series of wild escapades in search of self esteem and identity The Incredible Brazilian Zulfikar Ghose, 1972 The B. S. Johnson - Zulfikar Ghose Correspondence Vanessa Guignery, 2015-04-01 From 1959 to 1973 the writers B S Johnson and Zulfikar Ghose regularly wrote letters to each other in which they discussed their own work and literary preoccupations They exchanged early drafts of poems short stories plays and novels and their correspondence contains detailed comments and extended analyses of these texts as well as illuminating reflections on literature criticism poetics and aesthetics Though much of the correspondence is an extended literary discussion it also contains moments of personal revelation jokes and anecdotes so that the letters with their surprising asides are enjoyable to read even as they inform with their biographical and intellectual content The two authors also frequently refer to the university poetry journals and literary magazines they contributed to or edited and they write about the poetry meetings they attended and the writers they met or read Their involvement in literary groups and their dealings with publishers editors and agents are indicative of the publishing mechanisms of the time This correspondence thus not only provides insight into the work of both B S Johnson and Zulfikar Ghose but also conjures up a comprehensive picture of the London literary world of the 1960s Asian American Autobiographers Guiyou Huang, 2001-05-30 Asian Americans have made many significant contributions to industry science politics and the arts At the same time they have made great sacrifices and endured enormous hardships This reference examines autobiographies and memoirs written by Asian Americans in the twentieth century Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 60 major autobiographers of Asian descent Some of these such as Meena Alexander and Maxine Hong Kingston are known primarily for their writings others such as Daniel K Inouye are known largely for other achievements which they have chronicled in their autobiographies Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a reliable account of the autobiographer s life reviews major autobiographical works and themes including fictionalized autobiographies and autobiographical novels presents a meticulously researched account of the critical reception of these works and closes with a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay considers the history and development of autobiography in American literature and culture and discusses issues and themes vital to Asian American autobiographies and memoirs such as family diaspora nationhood identity cultural assimilation racial dynamics and the formation of the Asian American literary canon The volume closes with a selected bibliography

Zulfikar Ghose Mansoor Abbasi, 2015-06-18 In 1963 Zulfikar Ghose received a special award from the E C Gregory Trust that was judged by T S Eliot Henry Moore Herbert Read and Bonamy Dobr e A year earlier in an issue devoted to the newly emerging Commonwealth literature the Times Literary Supplement featured Zulfikar Ghose as the most prominent poet from the former British colonies by conspicuously printing three of his poems spread across half a page By the time he was featured in The Review of Contemporary Fiction Ghose had been accorded major status as a writer of international repute the editors of The Review of Contemporary Fiction noted that Zulfikar Ghose has both ranked with and outranked several of the best English language writers in England and America and went on to present him as a unique figure in contemporary literature whose evolution across languages and national boundaries was comparable to Conrad Nabokov and Beckett In spite of receiving such notable attention Ghose has remained a marginal presence and in fact an untouchable among writers accorded a world class status Of the several reasons suggested for Ghose s marginalization by scholars of world literature and post colonial studies the most significant one is that his oeuvre resists categorisation For Ghose to use Proust s phrases Quality of language and the beauty of an image are the heart of great writing Ghose s work is full of meditative reverberations and has a fastidious style that scintillates the reader s mind with its brilliance His genius lies in the construction of a language that is lyrical and full of vivid imagery He captures the images of his native Punjab as well as the South American landscape and imbues the air with the fragrance of Amazon rainforest while his prose sends a shiver between the shoulder blades In his experimentation with form he make s it new to use Pound s phrase His literary journey from the imitation of nineteenth century realism to his most experimental and ambitious works like Hulme s Investigations into the Bogart Script and The Triple Mirror of the Self reflects his wide range of experimentation with form and style This book investigates the structural patterns in the novels of Zulfikar Ghose that give each of his works its peculiar aesthetic design While on the one hand this work notes his role as a pioneer among South Asian writers of the post colonial era on the other hand his novels are examined in the critical framework erected by the writer himself with its emphasis on style that is the central concern of this study
